Special teaching from Father Brahma –
Become an embodiment of awareness of both Bap and Dada and follow the father.

Today, remembrance of Father Brahma is especially merged in everyone's mind. Today is a special memorial day of Father Brahma playing his part in the avyakt form from sakar. From amrit vela, BapDada saw that Father Brahma was specially merged in each child's eyes and mind. Today is the day of the memorial of the day when Father Brahma became an instrument to play his part in the avyakt form. There were very few children who celebrated a meeting with the Father in the sakar form. In their forehead is the awareness of Father Brahma's activities, words and blessings. Though they were just a few and now, there is greater expansion, but even now, he is giving sustenance through the avyakt form. While remembering Father Brahma, there were few who took inspirations to play their parts with the sakar form and they become his companions, but, now, all of you have become his companions. Although you didn't see him in the sakar form, you are now taking sustenance from him through the avyakt form. So, those who are taking sustenance from the avyakt form of Brahma, raise your hands! No, not those who were there during the sakar days, but who have come during the avyakt part, raise your hands! Even now, Avyakt Brahma is giving so much sustenance through the avyakt form. Father Shiva is with you, but Brahma Baba is now giving sustenance through the angelic form because Father Brahma being in a corporeal body played the best part during the establishment. There were also Brahmins with Father Brahma – those who were there at the time of sakar Brahma, raise your hands! There were few. Among those who have come now, there are few – there are also others who come turn by turn.

Today, on the day of Father Brahma, from amrit vela, together with Shiv Baba, everyone remembered Father Brahma in their hearts. Those who took sustenance from Father Brahma in the sakar form, raise your hands! Raise your hands high. There are few. There are few. OK, now, you are taking sustenance from avyakt Brahma and this is why you call yourselves Brahmins. To play your part with sakar Brahma is also a sign of fortune. However, even now, both Bap and Dada are together serving the children. You are so fortunate! BapDada sings the song "Wah children! Wah!" on seeing the fortune of the children. However, now, both together, both Bap and Dada, are serving the children. Father Brahma has a special part of sustenance. Follow both Bap and Dada because everyone especially remembers Father Brahma with their hearts. Along with that, on this special day today, from amrit vela onwards, the teachings of both Bap and Dada continued to come into the awareness, in the mind of everyone. Father Brahma's special teaching is: Become an embodiment of the awareness of BapDada. It isn't the Father alone, nor is it Father Brahma alone - remember both of them. It is the sustenance from both of them that is making you move ahead the most. So, in terms of today being a special day, remembrance of Father Brahma is in the hearts of everyone and you are following the father because Father Brahma was the same as you in the corporeal form. Father Brahma always says: Follow both Bap and Dada. Brahma Baba stayed in the corporeal form and played his part in the corporeal form with the children and in service outside. In the same way, you have to follow Brahma Baba. BapDada has seen that the children are moving along following both. Every day at amrit vela, BapDada gives special love and remembrance from His heart to those long-lost and now-found children who follow the father. He gives them the blessing, "Wah children! Wah!"

Just as you saw and heard about the specialities of Father Brahma on this day, so you are following in that way, are you not? Just as all of you in the corporeal form have seen and heard about the practical life of Father Brahma; of him coming into all relationships with the One. So, Father Brahma has especially brought in front of himself all the children who follow him and has given them special love and remembrance. So, did you accept remembrance from Father Brahma? He has given lots and lots of love from his heart. "Love" means to receive the blessing of "Follow the father". So, all of you are following BapDada, are you not? If you are doing so, raise your hands! Although you have not seen Father Brahma in the corporeal form, but having heard about his activities, you are celebrating a meeting in your hearts with Father Brahma and are following him. Father Brahma is pleased with the children. Never stop following him. Follow both Bap and Dada because Father Brahma played a part in the corporeal form just as you are doing and passed in that. The memorial of today is of Father Brahma passing. You are following the father, are you not? Are you? Are you following Brahma and Shiv Baba? Those who are following, raise your hands! Achcha. All of you are raising your hands. Many, many congratulations. Congratulations.

Today, at amrit vela, avyakt Father Brahma especially made each of you children emerge with a lot of love in his heart and gave a lot of love and remembrance emerging you in the corporeal form. When you see the Father giving so much love in the corporeal form, then, as soon as you see that, you have the zeal and enthusiasm in your hearts to become complete. All of you have the awareness in your minds of playing your parts, the same as Father Brahma, in the corporeal form, do you not? You have not seen, but you have heard about what Father Brahma did in the corporeal form, haven't you? How he fulfilled the responsibility of love. He did service and also fulfilled the responsibility of love. You are those who follow the father, are you not? Raise your hands, those who are going to do this or those who are already doing it. You are also doing this. You are doing it because you all have love for Father Brahma. Although you did not see him in the corporeal form, on hearing about the sustenance from Father Brahma, you have the thought in your hearts to follow him.

Today is the special memorial day of Father Brahma and Father Brahma has made all the children from every zone emerge. There will be all of you in the zones, will there not? So, he has given love and remembrance to each one. Did each of you receive that remembrance? Raise your hands! He remembered you with a lot of love, "Wah children! Wah!", "Long-lost and now-found children wah!" Even now, Father Brahma continues to meet you in the avyakt form. So, all of you are moving along with sustenance from BapDada, are you not? Or, do you sometimes miss it? Those who are moving along and pay that attention and who have the zeal and enthusiasm to follow both Father Brahma and Father Shiva, raise your hands! Achcha. Although many children have not seen Father Brahma, they know that he is our father. By remembering Father Brahma, the sustenance received from the sakar form gives you strength. Many of you find this difficult, do you not? In the world today, it feels difficult to follow anyone, and yet Father Brahma has played his part so accurately. Follow the father in the same way. Father Brahma too had to face opposition, but he passed. So, all of you also must have the determined thought that, while playing your parts until the end, you have to pass with your parts and that this has already been accomplished. Is it already accomplished or is it going to happen? You have the faith that it is already accomplished. It is the season for us to have victory: this is the speciality of the confluence age. So, continue to use the speciality of this time. There is a blessing at the confluence age for following BapDada. So, all of you who use this blessing, raise your hands! Father Brahma and Father Shiva – the blessings of BapDada are making you move.

Today is the memorial day of Father Brahma. For years, Father Brahma has given attention to giving the sustenance of the sakar form from in the morning, has he not? How did Father Brahma do it? He took so much love from the incorporeal Father and he also gave it! Today, those who have seen Father Brahma are few. Those who have seen Father Brahma in the corporeal form, raise your hands high! Achcha. All of these, the majority on this side (the sister's side) have come later. Yes, those who came at the time of Father Brahma, raise your hands! Those who have come later are not raising their hands. Today, Father Brahma has especially given all the children – whether new or old – lots and lots of remembrance from his heart. Father Brahma has appeared in front of you. If he has come in front of you, raise your hands. He has entered each one's heart because everyone has seen his picture.

On this day, you remember both Bap and Dada at the same time, but, because of this special day, those who have taken sustenance through Father Brahma remember him more. Father Brahma has given special remembrance to all of those who lived with him and who took sustenance from him in a practical way by patting his hand on their heads in this way (BapDada demonstrated). He gave this to everyone, but he gave to those children first, and then to everyone. Today, because it is the day of Father Brahma, Father Brahma has given the remembrance of Father Brahma to each one. OK, it is now time. Whose turn is it to meet today?

It is the turn of Indore Zone to serve. 160 Kumaris from the hostel have come. A total of 7000 have come. Very good. The majority that have come are from Indore. Those who have come from Indore, raise your hands! Congratulations. It is good. Whenever the trance messenger goes to the subtle region, Father Brahma especially remembers the children and says, “Wah children! Wah!” Achcha. Those from Indore, you are ahead of everyone in your efforts, are you not? None of you should remain behind. Those who remain behind will also receive their attainment later. Therefore, always be number one. Always. You always have to claim number one in every task. It may be the turn of the Indore Zone, but all zones have come, and so special love and remembrance from Father Brahma, in particular to those from Indore and also for everyone. Those from Indore, raise your hands! You have played very good parts. You yourselves claimed the fruit of service and also given it to others. You did well.

400 double-foreigners have come: Double foreigners should especially accept double love and remembrance. It is the foreigners who have become instruments to reveal BapDada as the World Benefactor. At first, Baba was the Bharat Benefactor and now His name is known as the World Benefactor. So, those from abroad have performed wonders. BapDada also gives the children from foreign special thanks. You have recognized Baba and you are also doing service. Baba always continues to hear about foreign service. You are moving ahead with good zeal and enthusiasm and will continue to do so. (You can clap.)

The group from Calcutta have decorated all three complexes beautifully with flowers. Are those who have done the flower decorations here now? Achcha. Welcome. It is good that you came. BapDada is pleased to see the children. You have come to your home. It is because of service that you have gone to different places, but, all of you are otherwise residents of Madhuban. Achcha.

For BapDada, each child is merged in His heart. No matter where you may be staying, whether it is in this land or abroad, you are merged in the heart of the Comforter of Hearts. Achcha.

Dadi Janki: (She is happy because she is going to London.) She is always happy. The Father will be with you.

Nirwairbhai: Your health is OK. Your account is settled now. Now that account is over. Service has taken place. Achcha.

Mohiniben: You are always happy and it is happiness that is making you move along. Together with remembrance of the Father, happiness is making you move along.

Brijmohanbhai: (Brijmohanbhai gave BapDada remembrance from ORC residents and Mohitbhai.) Give him Baba’s remembrance and also take toli for him.

Rameshbhai: Is your health OK!

Golakbhai: Are you all right? You always have to remain fine and then there is no other question. (To everyone) You are those who always remain fine.

*** O M S H A N T I *****

Remain alert before anything happens suddenly and make yourself powerful. Have a happy temperament and create an atmosphere of contentment. Along with that, complete the task of giving the message to every area. Let there now be no complaints from anyone.

Today's gathering is visible as being loving and of those who are stable in the stage of being embodiments of remembrance. Zeal and enthusiasm for world benefit is merged in each one's mind. Whether you are in front of Baba or far away, the whole Brahmin family is merged in love of the heart. This love, the love of the meeting between the Supreme Soul and souls is very lovely and unique. Today, BapDada is seeing all the children everywhere in their powerful form. Where there is power, waste automatically finishes there. The powerful Father and the powerful children – this powerful meeting between souls and the Supreme Soul is very lovely and unique and this meeting only takes place at the confluence age. A handful of souls out of multimillions experience this corporeal (sakar) meeting between the Supreme Soul and souls. This meeting between the Supreme Soul and souls only takes place in the cycle now, at the confluence age. Not just one hundred times fortunate souls, but you multimillion times fortunate souls are celebrating a meeting personally in front of Baba. At this time, in everyone's heart, you have claimed the fortune of this meeting. In the mind of each of you is the feeling of belonging: "My Baba".

At this time, BapDada wants you to give this experience of "My Baba" to other souls and enable them to claim a right to the inheritance. Today, sorrow, peacelessness and temporary happiness are spread throughout the world. You must definitely give those souls at least a little experience of happiness and peace because you can give this experience only at this time. This time has the blessing of enabling souls to meet God. Out of the whole cycle, it is only at this time that souls have the meeting, introduction, relationship and inheritance of the Supreme Soul. Now, all the children who have claimed a right should always feel mercy for those souls that none of the souls of this land or of the foreign lands remain deprived. Your special task is not to leave out any area in any way so that they could complain that they did not receive the introduction. You are doing service everywhere, but no area nearby should be left out. Let there be no complaints that "Our Baba came and we didn't even know". This is the responsibility of you children who have become instruments. As much as possible, definitely give the message. Note down which area is still remaining, so that there will be no complaints that they didn't even know. It is your duty to make them aware – whether they accept it or not is up to them. Each one should check near their own area and make sure that no area is left of receiving the message. Each one's fortune is his or her own, but it is the duty of you fortunate souls to give the message. Each one of you should check your own area and the surrounding areas so that those of our area do not complain that they did not even get to know. Whether it is a small village, a big village or a city, it is the duty of you fortunate souls to give the message. Check whether the message has reached the areas surrounding to that of yours. Let no area have this complaint. In the majority, you have reached the main cities, but you must nevertheless check that no area is left out so that they would complain to you that their Father came and you did not tell us about Him. You do check this and BapDada sees this. Nevertheless, in the areas that you can reach and yet no one has reached there, it is your duty to give the message. Even though it may be a small area, if it is close to your area, then note it down. Even those from the smaller areas can complain to you, "You knew our Father had come; He is our Father because He is the Father of everyone. So, why did you not tell us?" Therefore, check if the message has reached everywhere in your own areas. Then your responsibility is finished. Do not think that that is a small area, for the people from that area are also (Baba's) children, are they not? Send anyone so that they at least become aware that the Father of all of you has come. Cover your whole area through any programme. If it is a small area, then send someone junior, but let them not remain deprived because the time will come suddenly. It will not come after you are informed. You must definitely see to your duty of giving the message everywhere. For instance, if there is no service in your area, then inform those of your surrounding area and make them instruments. Let no soul be left out; they should receive the message, rest is their fortune. So, each one of you has to check your own area. Even if it is a small street or ordinary people, they are also the children: they should at least know that the Father has come. You can do this in whatever way you want, but let there be no complaints left that they didn't even know. This is your duty because any circumstances can suddenly come at any time. Fulfil your duty! No matter whomever you send, let there be no complaints remaining that they didn't even know. They would be close to some area, would they not? Because any conflict can suddenly begin. Fulfil your duty and check that no one is left out in your surrounding areas. If it is someone else's area, then consult them. Do not do it without consulting them. Consult them and then fulfil this because anything can happen suddenly. This is why, today, BapDada is giving a signal to all the children, whether of this land or abroad to check your own areas. Consult the seniors and then get them to do something, but let no one be left out. You have meetings, don't you? So, you can consult one another in those. BapDada is saying: The time will come suddenly - some people do have the sanskars of thinking that they will do it at some point, that it will happen, however, let no one be left out. BapDada is giving this signal to everyone. Check your own area. If someone else wants to do something, then get that one also to do it because you cannot trust the time. Small things do keep happening suddenly. You can look at your own areas. The surrounding places – whatever comes in your areas, check whether they are still to receive the message and that you will not get any complaints.

All of you are the Father's long-lost and now-found children who belong to the Father. BapDada is also pleased to see you long-lost and now-found children. Wah children! Wah! Do not become tired in your efforts. If any small or big situation comes up, then take help. If you do not want to take anyone's help, then check it with the power of your yoga and find some or other solution to it.

Each one of you has to check that no one in your area is still left to receive the message. You may be thinking, "Why is BapDada emphasizing this today?" Because BapDada has seen that many children who have the responsibility of their nearby areas are not fulfilling it, and this is why BapDada is giving a signal that, due to any reason, if anyone's area is left out, then definitely find a solution to that and definitely give the message. Today, BapDada is giving a signal that no complaints should remain. Why? You will see that time is needed for each one to check their area and for them to make effort. So, now check your own areas. Let no area complain that they didn't know. If you want the help of those who are doing service, then tell your zone to help you. Today, BapDada is giving a signal for service, together with service, what other signal is there? That of making yourself complete. It should not be that you become so busy with service that you do not have the time to look at yourself. Look at yourself and look at the time. All of you remain happy. If you do not have a happy temperament, then take help from those in whom you have faith and in whom you have that bhavna (feeling of love), because BapDada knows that trivial things can happen at any time. Therefore, it is your duty to keep yourself alert. No matter how much someone says, you have to keep yourself alert.

Today, BapDada is signalling you to be ever ready in both service and yourself. There should be an atmosphere of contentment at every place. Because it is to happen, if there is discontent, be that small or big, with anyone's co-operation, it is necessary to make yourself powerful for that. Today, BapDada is giving this signal for you to be ready for "suddenly". Do not say then that you didn't know. It has to happen and it will happen suddenly. When it fades away from your mind, that is the time it will happen. This is why BapDada is giving you a signal to check yourself. Become equal to the Father in what the Father wants: all of you are clever in knowing this. The Father wants you to have such a stage in your thoughts, words, deeds, relationships and connections that you are able to face anything when it happens suddenly. Internal power. Let the soul always have that attention and always be an intense effort-maker. Self-transformation and being co-operative in bringing about transformation everywhere: continue to check both of these things.

Are all of you OK? Raise your hands! OK, OK, OK? Achcha. BapDada is seeing the hands of those who are at the front. The hands of those who are at the back are not visible. Now, those at the back, raise your hands! Achcha. Please accept lots and lots of love and remembrance from the depths of the heart of BapDada. None of you should think that you do not know about Baba's love. Is there anyone like that? Is there? No one? All of you know what God's love is, do you not? Do you know it? OK. Those who know, raise your hands. All of you are raising them. Raise them high! Put them down! Look, BapDada has seen that the majority of you are raising your hands. Perhaps some may be left out in between all of these, but the majority of you have raised your hands. If someone thinks otherwise, but may be a little embarrassed to raise your hands, if there is an obstacle or some upheaval, then tell your Dadis or those in whom you have faith, such as the senior Dadi or the Dadis – tell them. Do not keep it inside you. Take one or another cure for it, because if anything is to happen, it will happen suddenly. At that time, you will not be able to make any effort. Now check, if anything were to happen suddenly, if there were an upheaval whether you have enough power to be able to save yourself, to create that impact on the atmosphere and to also become helpers of others. Check this. Did all of you understand? Understand! You are all very sensible. BapDada likes it. He is not saying it just like that. You are sensible, but you sometimes take a little time when the time comes. Achcha.

To all the children everywhere, those who are far away and those who are near, many, many congratulations for paying attention to yourself. Do not be deceived. Pay attention! You are doing it and have to continue to do it. If you want any help, you can take it from those who are instruments. Not that someone says whom to take help from – you know who the instruments are. The Dadis are there, are they not? There are the Dadas and Dadis. Do not hold onto any mistakes. If you have made a mistake, then repent for it in your heart and with BapDada, and finish it. Do not accumulate it. If BapDada were to see each one's account, what should it be like? OK. Very good. Is it like that? Achcha. Raise your hands for this! All of you are raising your hands. Look, Dadi come! Look at everyone's hands. Raise your hands! Are all of you all right? Are all of you all right? Yes. Come Dadi. Bring Dadi here. Is Mohini not here today? Achcha. You have come.

It is the turn of Punjab zone to serve – 8000 have come: Those from Punjab have received a blessing. In the beginning, when the centre in Amritsar opened, there was a lot of influence of about the gurus. However, those from Punjab became victorious over everyone so that they allowed you to run your centres without any obstacles. BapDada is giving thanks to those from Punjab for this. You brought victory to the Satguru in place of the gurus. You did well. The centre of the Brahma Kumaris remained immortal in the midst of the gaddi of the gurus and it continued without any obstacles. It continued without any obstacles, did it not? Teachers from Punjab, raise your hands! Achcha. You have worked hard, and, even now, it is the turn of those from Punjab, is it not?

Mohiniben: Are you all right? (Baba, I am fine with Your blessings.) Congratulations. You are fine and will be fine. No matter what happens, “Baba, my Baba” is the medicine. You will be fine. It doesn't matter; these things will happen in-between. Achcha.

Munniben: You are working very hard and you are successful in that. You are making everything move in the best way and will continue to do so. Wherever you get a signal from, you just do it. That is all, and it moves along smoothly.

Double foreign brothers and sisters: Achcha, all these are double foreigners. (200 have come.) It has been seen that there are some double foreigners in every group. You are playing your part well. You are doing foreign service very well. However, given the extent that you are doing service, you don't give as much news. There should be someone fixed who writes and sends the results of everywhere, after every one or two months. There is good expansion in service. You are making good effort. (One brother has come from Karachi.) It is good. Karachi is the birthplace. If a gift comes from such a place, then that is so great. BapDada receives the news that everything is going well. Whoever comes, is there anyone else from Karachi who has come? There is only one. Very good. You liked it, did you not? Seeing the foreigners, BapDada remembers His title of being the World Benefactor because first there was just India whereas there are now also the lands abroad. So, BapDada always remembers the service abroad. First, Baba was just the Benefactor of India whereas it has now spread abroad everywhere. Any area that is still left will also be added and abroad has also been added. You have worked hard. The results abroad are also good. Achcha.

To Brother Nirwair: Your health is fine, and it is getting better. Do not worry about the hospital. Finalise it in the meeting with everyone's advice. If you think that this one hospital is empty because of Abu and if we do such a big programme (elsewhere) then who would come to Abu? First of all, take everyone's advice about the hospital. You should take advice as to whether to open another hospital here in Abu. (We will make an addition to this hospital.) However, it will be another one, will it not? Make that plan and then we shall then see. Show the plan.

To Brother Brijmohan: (About the God of the Gita). For that, change the topic a little. (You gave us the topic of non-violence; should we continue with that?) Change it a little. The point about non-violence being the supreme religion was a new point, but find an attractive point. Change it a little. Think about it a little. You should all think about a topic that attracts everyone. Now they think: What does it matter to us whatever it is? However, they should understand that it is for their benefit. Think in this way.

To the Senior Sisters of Punjab: Punjab is famous. Good kumaris have emerged from Punjab. Good brothers have also emerged through which Punjab, totally, is moving along well. You are progressing well with one another's co-operation. Now, progress even more, let there be the sound. There hasn't been any sound yet. (Should we do a Sant-Samelan (conference of the gurus) in Haridwar?) Bring some upheaval. They are listening peacefully, something from this one, and something from that one and then it becomes mixed. However, what is the original, make that famous. Then, those who belong to you will emerge. Why? Now, do such service that someone emerges from the holy men who are well known there. Do this service. Let them say that they have brought the knowledge of the Brahma Kumaris into their lives. Let such an example emerge. All are sitting here; you can take the help of anyone in Punjab. You can take help from India. Take everyone's help! Let the sound emerge that the Brahma Kumaris are talking about Shiva instead of Krishna. Let this sound emerge. This is the service of Punjab. This sound should emerge. If you make this sound emerge, Punjab will be given a prize. Whether they believe it or not, they should at least say that this is their (BKs) opinion and everyone should think about it. Do some wonders. All of you together should discuss this. It is good. Everything is moving along peacefully. They have all become quiet.

Rajben from Jalandhar (is not well and is unable to come): Take some toli for her.

Jayantiben said: (Baba, You sent Dadi Janki to London for eight days. Many, many thanks for that.) Everyone became happy, did they not? It is good. Whatever was in the drama was good.

*** O M S H A N T I ***

Children who are worthy of God's love receive love and give love while following the Father.
Become free from obstacles yourselves and also make your close companions free from obstacles.

Today, the Ocean of Love is giving each of you children everywhere lots and lots and lots of love. In the whole cycle, it is only at this time of the confluence age that you receive God's love. People of the world call today the day of love (Valentine's day), but for you children, every day of the confluence age is a day to receive the Father's love. According to the memorial of this day, you children are in front of BapDada. However, all the children everywhere, whether abroad or in the villages, are in the Father's heart and every child is the beloved of the Father's heart. In fact, you children are worthy of God's love at the confluence age, but according to the world today, today is a special day of love, and so BapDada is bringing in front of Him all the children from everywhere who are worthy of love and giving each and every child unlimited love, love from the heart, love to fly constantly with zeal and enthusiasm. You are in front of Baba in the corporeal form, but in front of BapDada are all the children from everywhere, who are worthy of love and who are giving love and receiving love. In fact, due to celebrating it today, every child is said to be worthy of love on this day. However, every child is in fact worthy of God's love at every moment of the confluence age. Souls who are worthy of this love are deeply loved by the Father and are the beloved children of the Father. God's love is received only in this one birth of the confluence age. This love finishes the sorrow and suffering of many births and constantly feeds you the nourishment of happiness. Every child is a soul who has a right to God's love. Today, BapDada is receiving love from each child's heart, and, is also giving love from His heart. All of you souls have also become embodiments of love and are showing this through your form. God's love is merged in each child's eyes and on the forehead. Now, each one of you constantly have the zeal and enthusiasm in your heart to make all of your brothers and sisters worthy of God's love.

Today, BapDada is seeing that each of you children has such zeal and enthusiasm in your mind to definitely become equal to the Father. You are those who are following the Father, are you not? Even though the children are numberwise according to their efforts, BapDada has constant love for each of you children. At amrit vela, BapDada especially gives each of you children everywhere love, remembrance and powers as blessings. This is the fortune of the children who are worthy of God. Now, BapDada has one more thought. Should Baba tell you that? Should He? Then you will have to do that. Those who are going to do that, raise your hands! You have very good courage. BapDada is pleased, and the children who have courage definitely receive the Father's help. Now show this wonder: Each child has to become free from obstacles and equal to the Father. All of you have this aim, but some obstacle comes in-between and makes you a little slack in your aim. Now, Baba wants each of you children to keep the aim for yourself: To become free from obstacles in your thoughts, words, relationships and connections, to be constantly equal to the Father, to give zeal and enthusiasm to others and to be co-operative with them and make them also free from obstacles. Each one of you has to make your service place free from obstacles and take blessings from everyone. At each service place, whether at home or at the centre, let each one of you have this determined thought and show that you are free from obstacles and that you will do the service of making your companions free from obstacles. At the very least, each centre has to be co-operative with its companions and be successful in the service of making them free from obstacles. BapDada now wants to see the centres, the self, wherever you are staying, free from obstacles and finish all waste even in your thoughts - you have to become like this and also make others the same. Is this possible?

So, from today - look all of you are raising your hands! Those at the back, wave your hands! Achcha. So, from today, you will make yourself free from obstacles and wherever you are living, you will make that place and your companions free from obstacles. Are you making this determined thought from now? Can you also make your companions like this? Raise your hands for this! You are raising your hands after thinking about it. Since you call yourselves "world transformers", then, before you can transform the world, you will definitely have to make the place where you are staying free from obstacles, will you not? Have the aim that, just as you have made yourselves free from obstacles and you have success in your thoughts, in the same way, you will make your companions and the atmosphere there the same as you, for only then will your kingdom come, will it not? So, now, today, BapDada is giving you this work: You have become this and BapDada is pleased. However, you also have to make your companions free from obstacles because you have to establish your own kingdom, do you not? Everyone will be in the kingdom, will they not? So, have this thought and, as much as possible, also take help from your companions. Even if you have to take their help, take it make them like this. Can you have this thought? Raise your hands if you can do this! All of you are raising your hands. Very good. It is good. You have courage. No matter what someone is like, your atmosphere should be so powerful, that, to the extent that your atmosphere reaches, everyone in that area should be free from obstacles. Is this possible? Is it possible? Those who believe this to be possible, raise your hands! Those at the back, are you raising your hands? Wave them like this. You have pleased Baba by raising your hands. Congratulations. It is good that you have at least had the thought that you are going to do it. Why? You have to make those who are living with you and those who are in contact with you your companions, do you not? You will all be numberwise, and even the Father knows this, that difference will be visible, will it not? So, from today, create this special thought that you have to make those who are in connection with you and those who are close to you become free from obstacles. Will you be able to make them like this? Will you be able to do this? Will you do this? The first line is not raising their hands. You have to bring about your kingdom, do you not? So, you have to bring your companions into the kingdom, do you not? Will you leave them behind? If you co-operate with one another and have this aim, then, when you have courage, the Father will definitely help. Is this possible? Raise your hands if it is possible! All of you are raising your hands very well. You please BapDada by raising your hands.

So, BapDada is giving you some time. Make those who are in connection with you into companions the same as yourselves. All the Brahmins everywhere are to become constantly free from obstacles: is this possible or is it difficult? Those who believe that it is possible, raise your hands! Achcha. The first line, is it possible? Should you be given time until the next season, or should it be now? Can it happen now? You have to make your companions the same as yourselves. It will be numberwise, but at least make them such that no one becomes the form of an obstacle. Is this possible that no one becomes the form of an obstacle? The first line, is this possible? Those at the front? Achcha. You have good courage. When Baba comes in the next season, He will hear this good news. Will you bring this news? Those of you who feel that you will make effort and, even if you have to work a little hard, you will make your companions and those who are living near you free from obstacles, raise your hands! You are raising your hands very well. Well done! Well done! Now, BapDada will see the result every month. At least you should make your companions who are close to you like yourself, should you not? Can you do this? Can you make them like this? Achcha, raise your hands for this! All of you are raising your hands. Even now, BapDada is giving you congratulations for making them co-operative, and, when you come, He will see in the result that it has happened. Is this possible? Is this possible? The first line is not raising their hands. All of you are instruments and those who are instruments have to pay attention. It is good. Your courage and the Father's help!

So, you will now do this and show it to the Father, will you not? BapDada will see it. BapDada will give a present to those who make their companions free from obstacles in a practical way. However, when you say this, Baba will carry out some inquiries. Are you ready for this? The first line? It is good. Those who have courage have BapDada's help and will continue to receive it. Achcha.

Today is the day of love, and so everything becomes easy because of love. Just as all of you have maintained courage, so, the Father will help and your companions too will help, so it will become visible in a practical way. Transformation has to take place. Whatever small or big things there are, you have to transform them by yourselves. You should not have to be told. You are sensible and so you know what you have to do as well as what you must not do. Whatever you don't have to do, do not do that, that is all!

Now, in order for you to become world transformers, BapDada wants each one of you to become free from obstacles and make your companions the same, because you are world transformers, and so how can it be difficult to transform one or two companions? Each of you has to pay attention so that you definitely make your atmosphere and your companions free from obstacles. You are those who are going to make the world like this, BapDada is only giving you a small task. If you have this thought, then raise your hand, those who have had this thought! (Everyone raised their hands.) You have raised your hands and pleased Baba. Congratulations! Congratulations! Congratulations! Now, when Baba comes next time, He will hear the good news, will He not? He will hear it, will He not? Raise your hands for this. Make your close companions free from obstacles. You are being given a small task. Baba is not asking you to make everyone obstacle-free. Achcha.

BapDada is enjoying Himself. When the children have courage, BapDada is very happy and when the children have courage, the Father definitely helps. He is definitely your Companion. So, what result will Baba see next time? That there will be transformation in each one who stays with you as well as those who are close to you. It will be like that, will it not? You will do this, will you not? You will make your companions the same as yourselves, will you not? Raise your hands for this! You are very good in raising your hands. BapDada is pleased. At least you had the courage to raise your hands! Be one another's companions in doing this. So, are all of you happy? Those who are happy, raise your hands! Those who never lose their happiness, raise your hands! (Everyone raised their hands.) Are you always happy? Always happy? Are those at the back always happy? Raise your hands high! Achcha. Constantly remain happy and constantly make others happy. You agree with this, do you not? You also have to make others like this because your kingdom is going to be established. You have to establish it and so you will take your companions with you, will you not? Achcha.

17,000 have come from Eastern Zone, Tamil Nadu, Nepal, Assam, Bengal, Bihar, Orissa: (Each group was made to stand up one by one.) All the senior sisters who are in charge of a zone, stand up! Now, have the aim to make whatever area you have been given for serving free from obstacles. All of you have to have this thought because the kingdom has to be established. The kingdom will continue for half the cycle. For this, you have to tour around a little and work hard. Those who are the heads have to stay at all the places and find a solution to any problems. The problems are all similar, but each one of you has to finish any problems in your area and become embodiments of success. Is this OK? Raise your hands! Achcha. When Baba comes next time, He will ask: Have the obstacles in your area finished? Should Baba ask that? It is you who have to become this. All of you who are sitting here have to become this yourselves and then make others the same. The kingdom will be established and so the sanskars will be created here, will they not? It will happen. It is not a big deal. BapDada will be your Helper. If there is any such problem, write about it and send it to the yagya. It will be fine. You will receive all the help possible. You definitely do have to become free from obstacles, for only then will your kingdom be established. Very good.

400 double-foreign brothers and sisters have come: These are the double foreigners. Very good. BapDada is pleased on seeing the double foreigners. Wah double foreigners! Wah! You have made the Father famous as the World Father. He is not just the Benefactor of Bharat, but the World Benefactor. Earlier, Baba was the Bharat Benefactor and then by your expanding service everywhere, He is now the World Benefactor in a practical way. So, lots and lots and lots of love and remembrance to all of you. BapDada is seeing that you are those who will perform many, many wonders and will move forward. You are making good effort. Although everything is different everywhere, nevertheless you have become instruments to make Baba known as the World Father, not just the Father of Bharat. It is good. Today, BapDada is giving double love to the double foreigners. While living in a far away country, you are close to the heart. It is like that, is it not? Raise your hands! Very good. BapDada is pleased that you are moving forward. The foreigners are making progress, so congratulations for that. Achcha. You are co-operative with one another. Where is the instrument, Jayantiben? She tours around a lot. You are doing good service. Your companions are also good. BapDada is giving double love and remembrances to the double foreigners. Congratulations. Congratulations. Congratulations. Achcha.

To all the children everywhere, whether from this land or abroad, BapDada is giving all the children love from His heart and telling you something auspicious: It has been seen that everywhere, in this land or abroad, you pay good attention to service. There is expansion and there will continue to be expansion in the future too. Congratulations. Congratulations. Congratulations.

Munniben: Everyone is happy and content. You are doing service and will continue to do it.

Dadi Janki: (Dadi put a garland of roses on BapDada.) This garland is the love of all of you. This one is putting it on as an instrument, but the love of all of you has reached BapDada. Everyone's love is reaching BapDada. Everyone cannot be brought to the front and this is why BapDada is saying, “Wah children! Wah!”, from a distance.

Mohiniben: You are fine. You have become well and will remain well.

(Dadi Ratanmohini is going to receive an Honorary Doctorate degree from the Gulburga University.) It is good.

Dr Nirjala: You are looking after everything very well. The campus is going well. Congratulations.

Hansaben: Those who do something, they internally experience their account of charity. Do you experience this? You are looking after Dadi and everything is included in that. You are not serving Dadi alone, you are serving many others.

(All three brothers gave BapDada a bouquet each.) Are you all right? It is good. All of you are free from obstacles. All work is continuing well, and whatever situations there are, they are being resolved. They are being resolved, are they not? Congratulations.

Brijmohanbhai: Have you not changed the topic? (I have changed it. He showed it to BapDada.) Will they understand from this? Whatever was particularly about the Gita has become a bit hidden in this. Now think! When you think, it will become OK. (A religious conference is taking place in Haridwar.) It is good. Awaken them.

Rameshbhai: All business is fine, is it not?

Dr Banarasi: You are doing service very well. Congratulations! You don't get tired. It is good. You have this blessing.

*** O M S H A N T I *****

On the incarnation of Shiva, give the Father the special gift of finishing all waste, pay special attention and experience for one month the stage of being free from obstacles.

Today, on the incarnation of Shiva, on Shiva Jayanti, congratulations, congratulations, congratulations to all the beloved children. Today, on this day, BapDada saw that, from the morning onwards, there was lots and lots of happiness in everyone's heart for the memorial of the incarnation of God. This is because together with the incarnation of the Father, you children have also taken divine birth. So, you children are congratulating the Father and BapDada is congratulating each one of you children one hundred-thousand fold for your divine birth. In each one's mind, all the memories of the confluence age from birth until now are merged in the heart. Today, all of you have such happiness in your intellects about the incarnation of Shiva. The Father is also very, very happy for the divine birth of the children. Wah long-lost and now-found, sweetest children! Wah! This is because along with the Father, it is also the alokik, divine and worthy-of-worship birth of you children. At this confluence age, you have also incarnated along with the Father, that is, by taking a new birth you have become instruments for the task of world benefit. Together with the Father, you children are also companions in every task. All of you have the zeal and enthusiasm that this world definitely has to be transformed. You have this enthusiasm in your hearts, do you not? Then, raise your hands! If you have enthusiasm, then raise your hands! Achcha.

BapDada saw that the majority of you children have a lot of happiness in knowing that your kingdom is coming: you know that your kingdom is just about to come. This Shiv Ratri gives all the children the happiness that it is the day of the Father's incarnation. So, today, everyone of you has the remembrance of Father Shiva merged in your mind. Our Baba has come! Our kingdom is about to come. On seeing the zeal and enthusiasm of children, BapDada is singing the song "Wah children! Wah!" The Father saw that the children who are specially engaged in service are singing the song day and night with happiness in their heart: Our kingdom is about to come. You know what the preparations are in order to go into that kingdom.

So, today, on Shiv Ratri, each one of you has to look at the chart of your heart: In order to go into our kingdom, how much perfection have I brought about in myself? This is because we have to go to the perfect kingdom where there is no name or trace of sorrow. So, do you see in your heart the sanskars of being constantly free from obstacles from now? Even before the obstacle comes, do I experience the stage of being free from obstacles? Now, BapDada is seeing in the children the speciality of being destroyers of obstacles and also wants to see it. Some children have the firm sanskar of being a constant obstacle-free companion of the Father. You have attention, but the meaning of attention is "no tension". You pay good attention to this aspect because it is only now when you instrument children become experienced in the stage that is free from obstacles that the vibrations of your being free from obstacles will reach the effort-making children.

So, today, BapDada was seeing how long you are able to maintain a stage that is free from obstacles. The result of some children, that is, of them paying attention was good. On this day of the incarnation of Shiva - the memorial is of the incarnation of Shiva - those children who keep the aim of being free from obstacles, BapDada is congratulating them on the day of the incarnation, and Dilaram, the Comforter of Hearts is also giving them love from His heart. In His heart, Baba is singing the song: Wah children! Wah! To pay attention means to have no tension. The sign of that is A-tension: no tension. So, today, BapDada was checking this. There are such children, but those who pay constant attention were fewer than what the Father wants. So, today, on this day of the incarnation, the Father now wants every child, according to his or her own efforts, to make a note for the self, whatever time you fix according to your own self: Did I remain free from obstacles for the duration of that time? This is because as you progress further, it will be necessary to pay attention to being free from obstacles. This is why BapDada now wants all you children from everywhere in the world to fix a time for yourself according to your own courage: I, the soul, can remain free from obstacles for this amount of time. By paying attention, you should see that for yourself. Is it easy or difficult to remain free from obstacles? Those who believe that it is easy by paying attention, raise your hands! Achcha. Raise your hands, but if you don't have that strength, then do not raise your hands. BapDada wants to see the result of one month. Just one month, Baba is not asking for more. And for those who want to remain free from obstacles in their thoughts for one month, not to even any waste thoughts, they should stop as soon as you tell them to stop. Now, there is a need to pay attention to your thoughts. So, check: Did I remain free from obstacles in every thought? Not even to have any waste thoughts. Am I paying this much attention to my thought power? Thoughts are your own power, are they not? So, now, think of a plan to remain free from obstacles. Check yourself for one month: Did what I think, happen practically or not? This is because Maya is also listening to this.

No matter how much Maya there is of the atmosphere, the influence of the atmosphere should not be an obstacle to the pure thoughts in your mind: let there be success in this. Check yourself for 15 days: not to even have any waste thoughts. Do I always have the Father merged in my heart? Now, for some time, pay attention to this effort over your thoughts. Words and deeds are gross things, but even your thoughts should not be wasteful - it is necessary to check each and every thought. Although there are words and actions, when the power of your thoughts becomes powerful, there will be a difference in your words and deeds. Today, BapDada is drawing your attention to the thoughts in your mind. The instrument maharathis now have to pay attention to the power of the mind. Words and deeds will automatically be put right. So, today, BapDada is signaling the thoughts of your mind because unnecessary waste thoughts also take up your time. You have to save that time. Is it possible? If it is possible, raise your hands! Achcha. You have a lot of zeal and enthusiasm and so, well done for that! Now, put that zeal and enthusiasm into your deeds. You will pass in this too, because, you will keep the Father with you, will you not? Then, by having the Father's company, all waste will automatically finish.

So, today, BapDada, is drawing your attention to waste thoughts because a lot of time is wasted in this. You have to use your time for intense effort. So, today, BapDada is drawing your attention to waste because children say: We don't have any bad thoughts, do we? We do have these little waste thoughts, but these can deceive you at any time. Therefore, now reduce the waste. So, thoughts, words, and deeds (relationships and connections): check yourself in all of these - How much is waste and how much is best? This is because on this Shiv Ratri, you will give a gift to the Father, will you not? Will you give it? Raise your hands! So, BapDada wants the gift that you finish all waste. Pay attention! You do pay attention to overcome anything bad, but you now also have to pay attention to waste because a lot of time is wasted in anything wasteful. So, on this day, in relation to Shiv Jayanti, BapDada is giving you the homework of paying attention to the waste. You like it, do you not? Do you like it? Then raise your hands! If you like it, then all of you will pass. If you like something, then whatever you like, you would do it with your heart. So, congratulations, congratulations, congratulations.

You don't find this to be hard work, do you? By paying attention, your effort reduces. Try it and see. You will all pass. When Baba asks for the result after one month, the majority of you will have passed. This is possible, is it not? Is it? Then, raise your hands! All of you are raising your hands. So, BapDada says: Wah children! Wah! With the aim, you will easily and naturally develop the qualifications. Achcha.

BapDada will give a prize to each and every child for your intense effort. Do you like it? Achcha. On this day, it is the day of Shiv Ratri, so there are special congratulations for this day and there is also love from the heart. Today, BapDada saw that there are many double foreigners. Stand up! Let us see how many there are. Look. Wah, wah, wah! BapDada is pleased. You are paying good attention. BapDada is giving blessings from His heart. These blessings are also for the people of Bharat. Nowadays, it is the season of those from abroad, and the children have come from many directions. BapDada is seeing that you have come from many countries. (1200 double foreigners have come from 80 countries.) All of you are doubly happy, are you not? Happy both with your body and your mind? It is good. All of you have attention on service. You can increase service as much as possible because anything can happen suddenly. Therefore, continue to increase service, because your kingdom is to come, is it not? You will rule in your own kingdom, will you not? As much as possible, at least give souls the Father's introduction. The Father comes and goes away and yet the children are not even aware! So, as much as possible, definitely give the message. Otherwise, there would be repentance: the Father came, we were even told about it, but we didn't go there. You just continue to increase your task of giving the message. No one should complain: We were living near you, we were living in this street and, in spite of that, we didn't know. It is good. The result of the foreigners is good. You have love for Madhuban. You were told earlier too, that it was only after you did service that BapDada became known as the World Server. You were also told earlier that, as much as possible, wherever anyone still remains, they should at least receive the message that our Father has come. Whether they follow or not is up to them, but from your side, they should at least receive the message. Then, they would repent, but, at least, they should know. Even so, the result is good. Very good. Wherever you have come from, having made that effort, you will receive the fruit of that effort and it is also accumulated. Very good! Sit down! Double foreigners, consider what your title is! Double foreigners may never forget that they are double foreigners.

It is the turn of Rajasthan Zone (5000 brothers and sisters have come from Rajasthan. In total, there are 20,000). BapDada has seen that because each zone has the duty, the result is good. That zone pays special attention. The result of the majority is good. What do you think? The result is good, is it not? It is very good that every zone gets this chance, and so it is co-operative in service very well and also the zone receives a special chance. The attention of the Dadis is also drawn to the zone. This feels good, does it not? Raise your hands!

Many have come for the first time: So, those who have come for the first time have to claim the first number, because you have to make up for all the time that you have missed. Therefore, become intense effort makers, not slack, but intense effort-makers. Do you agree? Intense effort-makers.

Dadi Ratanmohiniji received the doctorate degree: This is an honour for the organisation and shows that the Brahma Kumaris can do everything. Otherwise, they think: We don't know what the Brahma Kumaris are doing. From this, they can understand that you are all round and reach everywhere. Achcha.

(Dadi Janki: Wonderful Baba, it is Your wonder that you pull everyone's heart.) He is Dilaram, the Comforter of Hearts. The heart has reached Dilaram Baba. (How will everyone come to know about this?) They will find out. Those who still remain are beginning to find out. Now, with zeal and enthusiasm, enable the message to reach all the places that still remain. You can make it happen. Baba is inspiring it. The Father will even now continue to make it happen. Where will they go? (There are problems with the body.) It doesn't matter. Baba is an instrument to make the children move forward because the children have to face everything. Even so, He has to do everything through the children.

Mohiniben gave greetings to BapDada: One hundred, thousand-fold congratulations to you.

Rameshbhai gave a card to Baba: Thousand fold, multimillion-fold congratulations.

To brother Brijmohan: You do pay attention and you continue to move forward.

To Bhopalbhai: Are you OK? Very good.

All the cards that were sent to Baba were shown to BapDada. (Cards from Russia and Naliniben were shown to BapDada.) Tell them that BapDada saw the cards. Send them fruits and toli.

Senior sisters from abroad: Now, the maharathis from this land and abroad have come together. This feels like a good gathering, does it not? (All countries should get together and do some service.) You are making effort and doing service and you also have success. BapDada is pleased, whether it is those from this land or abroad. You are making effort and the fruit of your efforts is emerging. Therefore, congratulations, congratulations. You are the instruments. BapDada gives you power, but, in front of the world, it is you children who have to do everything.

A doctor came from Coimbatore: Now, you are a double doctor. You have to become a double doctor, not a single doctor. Is this firm? Are you sure? It is good. Continue to move forward. Continue to move forward in service. You have a ready-made means of giving the message. Do a lot of service. You will do it. It is good.

BapDada personally hoisted the flag for the 78th Shiva Jayanti:

Everyone's heart is saying the same words: Wah Shiva Jayanti! Wah! Wah Shiv Baba! Wah!

*** O M S H A N T I ***

Be holy (pure) every day of your life and spread the vibrations of purity everywhere.
Let the past be the past and put the blessing of success into a practical form.

Greetings of Holi to all the holy children. Today, each one of you holy children has come here to celebrate Holi with BapDada. So, BapDada is also giving all the holy children greetings for Holi. The Father and the children know how much lovely each child is. The Holiest Father is giving every child greetings of Holi with deep love. All the children are the holy children of the Holiest Father. On this day, every child knows their stage of becoming holy and of making others holy. The Father knows and you also know to what extent each of you children has become holy in your thoughts, words, deeds, relationships and connections and to what extent you have become pure because BapDada loves the holiest children very much. So, today, let each child accept congratulations for becoming the holiest. Every holy child is numberwise, but has a right to BapDada's love. So, BapDada is giving each and every child from everywhere, whether from this land or abroad, congratulations with lots of love from the depths of His heart for becoming holy. Congratulations. Congratulations.

Those on the path of devotion have created these types of days, but they have given importance to each day. You celebrate this day, the devotees also celebrate it, and the ordinary children too celebrate it, however, each of you children celebrate it in your own way. From amrit vela onwards, the children have formed lines from saying "Congratulations, congratulations" to the Father. Each child from everywhere, whether from this land, abroad or villages, is giving lots and lots of congratulations to the Father, and to all of you, from their heart, and BapDada is responding to the congratulations of the children with lots and lots of love.

Today, at amrit vela, from everywhere, the Father heard the songs of the children's hearts: Greetings of Holi, greetings of Holi. The Father is also congratulating each of you children who are personally in front of the Father. However many there are, and even to the last child at the very end, BapDada is saying: Congratulations, congratulations, congratulations. At this time, each one's face appears to be lost in the Father's love. While giving drishti through His eyes, BapDada is celebrating a meeting with all the children from everywhere, saying: Children, every day, constantly continue to move forward with the same happiness and pleasure of this meeting. Just as this day is called Holi, in the same way, become holy every day of your life, that is, become pure and continue to spread the vibrations of purity everywhere.

BapDada is pleased about one thing. What did He see? That each child is congratulating BapDada, and congratulations from all the different places have filled His aprons. Let these congratulations always be remembered. Congratulations for Holi. Today, from amrit vela onwards BapDada gave all the children from everywhere greetings from His heart. Let each child continue to move forward in every subject. BapDada is the Companion of every child. Right now, on this day, along with blessings from His heart, BapDada is giving congratulations to each child who has come personally in front of Him. Congratulations. Congratulations. "Ho li" (already happened). What would you say of the second that just passed? It is "ho li"; it has already happened. From amrit vela, every child according to their own time, sang the song of congratulations, the song of their heart although not singing through their lips, but BapDada's ears heard the song of congratulations from their heart. So, BapDada is responding to each of you children with personal congratulations. Along with blessings to every child from His heart along with love from His heart, congratulations, congratulations, congratulations.

From today onwards, every day at amrit vela, accept blessings from the Father according to your efforts. What are the Father's blessings? BapDada wants to see every child in the form of an intense effort-maker. When any situation comes, it is the duty of the situation to come and the duty of you children is to claim blessings from the Father's heart. Every day at amrit vela, accept blessings for yourself from the Father. Throughout the day, experience BapDada with you as your Protector. So, what is the meaning of the Father's company? Whatever the Father and the murli that you listen to at amrit vela says, there are blessings also merged in it, as well as love and remembrances. So, claim blessings every day, continue to fly and make others fly. Therefore, to celebrate Holi means to make the past and the present constantly an embodiment of success. You are embodiments of success. Success is your blessing since birth. With this awareness, remember the day again and again. BapDada's blessing is: Success is with every child because BapDada is with you, so, success is constantly with each one of you children. You simply have to put it into the practical form. You are embodiments of success. Your form is of success itself. So, on this day, keep this blessing in your awareness that success is our birthright. This awareness will change even matters of failure into success. So, on this day, remember: I am an embodiment of success. Constantly keep this blessing from BapDada that you received today in your awareness: Success is my birthright.

So, today, Holi means to let go of the past. Holi means the past. So, whatever you have done, today, let that be the past and for the future, remember: Success is my birthright. Every day at amrit vela keep this blessing in your awareness and check yourself the whole day and become an embodiment of success. Now, you have become very knowledge-full. You give a message to the world and BapDada gives each of you children this blessing: Success is your birthright. So, every day at amrit vela, keep this blessing in your awareness: Success in my birthright. If anything happens in a practical way, then remember this blessing of success and put it into the practical form.

The special blessing for today, for Holi, is to become equal to the Father, it is that you definitely have to become equal to Father Brahma and complete like him. Follow the father. Father Brahma was in the corporeal form and, even now, he is your helper. Therefore, follow Father Brahma. “Success is my birthright”. You have a right, do you not? You have a right, do you not? Raise your hands! So, where success is your right, Maya is not a big deal. Continue to watch the games of Maya. It is Maya’s duty to come, and so what is your duty? To gain victory. Always remember this. “I am a victorious jewel of success”. It is possible, is it not? Is it possible? You have a right to success, do you not? Achcha.

Many, many, many congratulations for today. Is everyone fine? Raise your hands! Raise them in this way. (Baba asked for both hands to be raised and for each one to clap.) It looks very good. BapDada is also giving a basketful of many, many congratulations. No matter what happens, remember it. Do not leave the Father’s gift. Achcha.

To all the children from everywhere, from this land and abroad, congratulations, congratulations, congratulations of this day.

It is the turn of Delhi and Agra to serve: (Total of 25,000 have come and 14,000 have come from Delhi and Agra.) Very good. Delhi has the blessing, that, according to the drama, that even in our kingdom, Delhi will be a special place, where there will be the kingdom of Lakshmi and Narayan. What are those from abroad thinking? Those from abroad are thinking that they too will belong to Delhi. No matter where you may be, Delhi will be the main place and so there will be the coming and going. You will come to the functions, will you not? You will continue to meet. You will continue to dance. You will continue to rule with enjoyment. You will have the company of the confluence age, there too. According to your stage, however close you are now, to that extent you will be close in the family, there too. Where will those from abroad go? They will come to Delhi. Together, all of you will rule together very well. Achcha.

Double foreigners: Double foreigners have filled half the hall. It is good. Now, just as those from Bharat come, so those from abroad also come from every country and take benefit. It is good. You are welcome. And when you go back, you will return with many others. Achcha.

Giving lots of love from the heart to each and every child, Baba is saying good night. It is good. Double foreigners have progressed well. In your efforts too, in some places, you are paying very good attention. BapDada is especially giving each of those children love and remembrance.

To the Dadis: All of you are looking after everything well. You are carrying out the task as instruments. You are doing well and will continue to do so.

Mohiniben: Each one of you has a blessing. The blessings are making you move forward and you will arrive there together. You will rule together, will you not? Today, Dadis from everywhere have come.

Rukmani Dadi: You may not be seeing it now, but your intellect is very good and healthy. Therefore, whatever is happening now, you know that, you are moving along and making everything move along. You are fine. Congratulations. Achcha.

To the three senior brothers: The Trimurti is paying attention to the whole Yagya. This Trimurti is instrumental to look after the whole Yagya and there are also your companions. There is also this one. Your companions are also very good. The way you are making it function is also good. Come closer to one another. Come close in your sanskars. You are close anyway, but now also pay attention to this aspect in harmonizing your sanskars. Let it be felt that you are not three, but one. Your companions are also very good. BapDada has not received any reports about them. They are good, but they have to be made even better. The activity of the Yagya is moving along very well. It does not matter. You are paying attention and will continue to do so in the future. Each one of you is looking after the duty that you have undertaken very well. BapDada is pleased.

A Sant-sammelan (Saints conference) is going to take place in Haridwar and Baba was asked: What are Your inspirations? Whenever you go to such a religious place, you have good wishes for them and should praise them so that they feel that you have regard for them. It is good.

Rameshbhai gave remembrances of many others: Tell all of them that BapDada has given remembrances to them.

Everyone celebrated the Platinum Jubilee of Sarla Didi in Gujarat with a lot of splendor. It is good. You have been blessed from birth. Now, the blessing has become a garland around your neck. Therefore, just as you are moving along as an instrument, so continue to move further forward; continue to expand everything. Achcha.

Amarben: This one is also giving you good company. It is good. Both are good.

Achcha. BapDada is giving special love and remembrance to each one. If you all come onto the stage, there will be chaos, but BapDada is giving each one of you drishti and love from a distance.

(Will Baba come next season?) The confluence age is for staying together, going together and ruling together. Even if the Father does not stay with you in the corporeal form (Shiv Baba will not stay with us in the golden-aged kingdom.) He will continue to give you inspirations for the kingdom. (Baba, keep the chariot OK.) Baba will keep the chariot OK. Achcha.

Rukmaniben gave Baba remembrance of Didi Nirmal Shanta. Today is the anniversary of Didi. Wherever she is, the daughter is happy and so you should also remain happy. (Baba, I am going on service to Patna.) It is good. Continue to move forward.

(“The Future of Power” has had 35 programmes in 35 cities all over Bharat. A very beautiful cake (in the shape of Bharat) was made to honour this. BapDada, Dadis and senior brothers cut this cake.)

*** O M S H A N T I *****

Seeing any type of atmosphere, continue to move forward with the Father's love and co-operation.
See each one's specialities. Maintain zeal and enthusiasm in yourself for intense effort and also give zeal and enthusiasm to your companions.

Om shanti. Today, BapDada is seeing the images of love, and from each one's face, it is visible how much love each child has for BapDada in their heart. To the extent that the children have love for BapDada, BapDada has even more love in His heart for each child. This love from the heart is making all the children move along according to their capacity. BapDada is seeing that each child has lots and lots of love in his or her heart for the Father and for both BapDada. BapDada also has love in His heart for each child. The Father's love and remembrance is merged in each one's heart. This alokik love is enabling each one to move along. No matter where or how many children there are, the love in BapDada's heart is making the children move along. Each child is moving along, numberwise, with BapDada's love and the love of the family. In the whole cycle, it is only now, at the confluence age, that you can experience this alokik love. Seeing the love in the heart of each child, BapDada is also giving blessings from His heart to the children: Children, constantly continue to receive love from the heart of the Beloved and continue to move forward. This love from BapDada's heart and the love from the heart of the family are making each soul move along and it will continue to make everyone move along. From the lines on the forehead of each of the children, BapDada knows how the Father's love is making each of you children move along. Now, BapDada is giving each of you children blessings to move along as a mahavir. Never become tired or afraid. The Father loves each child very much. It is this love that is making you move forward and it will continue to make you move forward. Each of you is experiencing, numberwise, such love of God, such love from the heart, and is moving along and each of you children has zeal and enthusiasm in your heart, but it is numberwise: We definitely have to become equal to the Father. All of you have this enthusiasm, do you not? You wish to become equal to the Father, do you not? You are becoming that and will become that in the future. Raise your hands! The Father too has love in His heart, He always sings praise of the children: Wah children! Wah! You are moving forward, and continue to move forward even more. Look, how many there are and who it is in the whole world that experiences a practical relationship with BapDada? All of you are the practical example. You have love in your hearts, and you are moving ahead of all with the sustenance of love. Are all of you moving forward with the sustenance of love? Or, if there is an obstacle in between, you do not stop, do you? BapDada has seen that many of you children have the thought of moving forward and that no matter how many small or big obstructions may come, the majority of children, on the basis of the Father's love and knowledge, are moving ahead very well and will continue to do so. Seeing you children, BapDada is very pleased about one thing. What is that one thing? No matter how many situations come, the majority of you become fearless and move forward. Seeing the aim and qualifications of the children, BapDada is pleased. This is why, upon seeing any type of atmosphere, many of you are not influenced by it, and with the Father's love and co-operation, are moving forward and will continue to move forward. When seeing one another, look at their specialities, do not look at other things. You definitely have to move forward. Tell everyone that your aim is: "We definitely have to move forward." Those who have this aim, raise your hands! Even while hearing of one another's weaknesses, do not hear them. Make yourself move forward and also continue to make your companions move forward. BapDada is seeing such children who are making good effort. However, while constantly bringing about a wave of intense effort in yourself, also bring about waves of intense efforts in others. Put zeal and enthusiasm into them. Be co-operative. Do not come under the influence of those who do not make effort, but instead put zeal and enthusiasm into them too. Every now and again, some souls experience tiredness in their efforts. BapDada sees this. However, those who remain intense in their efforts also enable others to move forward in their efforts. Let the atmosphere of the timetable be such that everyone continues to move forward with zeal and enthusiasm in their efforts and they continue to enable others to move forward too, because you are companions of one another, are you not? So, continue to move forward on the basis of your good wishes for everyone. Continue to relate the zeal and enthusiasm of your experience and be co-operative with one another.

BapDada saw that the majority is moving along well with the wave of effort, but because of having companions who are slack in their efforts, they are affected by this slightly. Therefore, pay attention to this!

I have to claim number one or up to number eight. All of you have the enthusiasm of remaining within the eight, not that you will claim a number at the back. Those of you who believe that you will be victorious, that you are and will be, raise your hands! All of you are raising your hands very well and so, thank you for that. However, continue to raise your hands all the time, not just at some times. No matter what the atmosphere becomes like, transform the atmosphere with your own atmosphere. Do not be influenced by the atmosphere. Move forward and continue to enable others to move forward. You are companions of one another, are you not? Constantly to give your company means to make them move forward. So, continue to move forward. Now, what aim does each of you children have? An intense effort-maker, not a slack effort-maker. Do not think: “I will be fine, I will be fine.” You have to be fine, because you have love for the Father, do you not? You have love for the Father, but what is it that the Father has love for? Intense effort-making children. So, what will you become? An intense effort-maker. Those who think that you will be intense effort-makers and co-operate with others, raise your hands! You are clever in raising your hands. BapDada is pleased that at least you have kept this courage. When the children maintain courage, God helps. You will definitely receive help. Simply have the desire: I definitely have to become this. I have to do this. Not to be slack in making effort, but to make effort. BapDada is pleased. Even now, it has been seen that when some situations come while making effort, some children then become weak. However, no: be courageous and make others courageous. At the very least, those who come regularly have the aim of making intense effort. It isn't that they do not have the aim, they do have the aim, but, when situations arise in between, they do think a little about making effort, but then become a little slack in doing it.

So, every day at amrit vela, check: Is the speed of my efforts intense, or am I just moving along, thinking, “I will reach there, it will happen?” You do not have such thoughts, do you? Become an intense effort-maker. You are an effort-maker, but check whether you are an intense effort-maker. Whom does BapDada love? Intense effort-makers. So, what does each of you children have to become? You have to become an intense effort-maker, do you not? Raise your hands! Is it that you have to become that, or are you moving along having become that already? Never leave this aim: I have to remain an intense effort-maker and also give my company to others. Do you have this aim? Those who have this aim in your hearts, raise your hands! Achcha. All of you are raising your hands. OK, if it is a little slack, then make it intense because, day by day, Maya also continues to do her work. However, who are all of you children? What is your title? Conquerors of Maya. Those of you who are going to become conquerors of Maya, raise your hands! All of you are raised your hands. BapDada is pleased that at least you children have courage. The children have courage and so the Father definitely helps. Never lose courage. You have BapDada's co-operation in advance. When you lose courage, you lose everything. When you have courage, when you children have courage, the Father definitely helps. Is this OK? Those of you who have courage, raise your hands! Some are raising both their hands. It is good. It is easy to raise your hands, but also raise your hand of effort. BapDada is pleased when there are waves of zeal and enthusiasm in the children because each child has the aim of becoming number one. Do you not? You do not wish to become number two, do you? Those of you who think that you have to become number one, raise your hands! All of you are raising your hands. You are raising your hands very well. BapDada is pleased. BapDada is pleased to see you raising your hands, but also continue to please Him. It is good. Whose turn is it today?

Today, it is the turn of Indore and Bhopal to serve: (10,000 have come.) They are half the class. (In total, there are 26,000 who have come for this turn. It is the biggest group.) So, it is a success. Congratulations! Those whose turn it is, raise your hands! It is good. When children have courage, the Father helps. It is good. Always maintain courage for every task. “If we do not do this, then who will? We are the ones who will do this”. It is like this, is it not? You are the ones and BapDada is pleased that through your courage, you definitely receive help. It is good. Congratulations! Congratulations!

Double foreign brothers and sisters: (600 have come.) BapDada is pleased with all the children anyway, but the foreigners have made the fortune of the gathering very clear. Seeing the double foreigners, Baba is pleased that, out of all the turns, there isn't a single turn where the foreigners do not raise their hands, and they come in a good number. Therefore, congratulations, congratulations, congratulations. Achcha.

Madhuban residents: It is good. Those who are from Madhuban give invitations and this is why those from Madhuban are doing good service. The result of service is good. BapDada is pleased that the residents of Madhuban are paying good attention to each of the departments. Therefore, congratulations. Congratulations to the Madhuban residents. Achcha.

Those who have come for the first time: Half the class has come for the first time. Raise your hands very well! Achcha.

To all the special brothers and sisters from everywhere, those who remain constantly firm on the directions, BapDada makes a note of such children. BapDada makes a note of those who move forward in every task and it is those souls who raise their hands for the different tasks. It is good. BapDada also sees such effort-making children. To such children, please accept lots, lots and lots of special love and remembrances from the heart.

(Dadi Jankiji has sent special remembrance. Her health is not good. She is listening to the murli in her room): Baba is giving special love and remembrance to child Janak. Baba is giving remembrances on behalf of all of you too because her heart is here, even though her body is there. The whole gathering is in front of her. She is claiming a good number in her effort, and, in illness too, she has claimed number one! Otherwise, she is not one who would ever miss this. BapDada is giving lots and lots of love from His heart to her and to all of you too. (Dadi Janki is saying that Baba should perform some magic so that she can come personally in front of Baba.) It is not good to get up now. There is pain.

To Mohiniben: This one also remains courageous. Congratulations. It will enable you to move forward.

To Ishu Dadi: You are ever ready. You say “Ha ji, ha ji” to every task. It is good. You are playing your part well.

To Rukmani Dadi: Are you OK? She is good. You have come this far by maintaining courage. It is good. Many, many congratulations to all those from Delhi. You pay attention to every task. Ever ready.

(Nirvairbhai requested BapDada to come at the time of the annual meeting.) We will see.

To Brijmohanbhai: You are moving along well. It will grow slowly.

It is the Golden Jubilee of Gamdevi Centre, Bombay. Gamdevi is the foundation. It has been run well. (Everyone has sent remembrances.) Give everyone lots and lots of love and remembrance.

(Overseas Communications Centre has been made in the Godlywood Studio for the Double foreigners.) Very good.

It is the Silver Jubilee of Bangur Centre, Calcutta: BapDada is giving congratulations on behalf of everyone. Congratulations.

Brothers and sisters are sitting outside this hall in the garden and also in the Conference Hall: Wherever the brothers and sisters are watching, BapDada is also seeing all of you and giving you love and remembrances and saying good night.

Letter regarding Dadi Janki's health from B. K. Hridaymohini

To beloved Avyakt BapDada's instrument teachers who are very loving and always engaged in the unlimited service of world benefit by giving sakaash through your good wishes, to all brothers and sisters who are the decoration of the Brahmin clan, please accept sweet love-filled remembrance from Madhuban.

All of you must have received the news of our sweetest Dadi Jankiji's health. Because of having a slight fracture on the right shoulder, there is great pain and, together with this, there is also some pain in the hip-bone and so there is difficulty in sitting. Dadiji always remains yogyukt, but Baba mentioned yesterday in the sakar murli that when His specially beloved children are in difficulty, Baba stays awake at night to give special sakaash and gives them extra help. Our Dadiji is the pride and honour of the yagya. She sustains everyone tirelessly with knowledge and yoga. Now, doctors have instructed Dadi to take complete rest for five to six weeks. It is requested that all centres have special meditation for 15 minutes after murli class and do the service of giving sakaash to Dadi through which the atmosphere everywhere will also become powerful and our Dadi will also recover as quickly as possible.

With these good wishes, lots and lots of love and remembrances.

In Godly service.

B.K. Hridaymohini.

Deepawali is the memorial of Dilaram (the Comforter of Hearts) and the Deepaks (lamps).
Dilaram is merged in the heart of each of you children.

Many, many congratulations from the Father, Dilaram, Deepraj (King of Deepaks), to each of the very, very sweet and lovely deepaks and lots of love from the heart. BapDada is merged in each one's heart. Deepraj is merged in your hearts, is He not? Yes? Raise your hands. Each one's heart is speaking while not speaking. . What is it saying? You are the 'deep' (short form of "deepak) children of Deepraj and you deepaks will remain constantly lit. It is like that, is it not? If it is, then raise your hands! Wah deepaks of Deepraj! wah! BapDada is very pleased to see each one of His deepak children and His heart is repeatedly saying, "Wah 'deep' children, wah!" BapDada much loves every child, every Deepak very much. Why are you so deeply loved? Is there anyone else in your heart? Dilaram Father. BapDada is seeing that only Dilaram is visible in each one's heart. For Dilaram to reside in your heart reminds you of Deepawali. The very names are Dilaram and Deepak. "Mera Baba" (my Baba) is merged in each one's heart. When you say "mine", whatever is mine is rarely forgotten. So, who is in each one's heart? My Baba. Who is in the Father's heart? Each child. What does BapDada think on seeing each one of you children? Wah children, wah! Although you are numberwise, for the Father, each child is "Wah, wah!" The Father is merged in each child's heart. If anyone asks you who is in your heart, what would you say? "My Baba", because it is difficult to forget and easy to remember that which is "mine". It is difficult to forget that one. So, BapDada is seeing that BapDada is merged in the hearts of the majority of you children. On seeing each of you children, the Father also says, "Wah children, wah". Only at the confluence age do you experience this relationship in a practical way. If you look in everyone's hearts, what do you see in them now? "My Baba". And, what is in BapDada's heart? Each child. No matter how many children the Father has, they are all merged in His heart. This spiritual relationship can only be experienced now at the confluence age. What would each child say? "My Baba". What would the Father say? "Each child is Mine" - This relationship is experienced in a practical way only now, at the confluence age.

Seeing each of you children, Baba also says: My beloved child. And, what do the children say? "My Beloved Baba". Are all of you happy? You constantly continue to receive the nourishment of happiness from the Father, and the children also constantly keep the blessing received from the Father in their hearts. The Father is looking at the children visible in this gathering and the children are looking at the Father. The Father says: "Wah children!" and the children say, "Wah Baba!". What is on each one's face? God's love. So, all the children constantly and easily continue to fly with the Father's congratulations. You are those who fly, are you not? Raise your hands! You are not those who walk, but those who fly. Are all of you those who fly or are there also those who walk? You continue to fly because this is the time to fly. This song continually plays in each one's heart: "Wah Baba! Wah me!" Who is in each one's heart? Speak! My Baba. So, do you constantly experience the consciousness of "mine" in your form or do you forget it while doing your work? In fact, if you think about it, even a small thing of that belongs to me is difficult to forget. If you make something belong to you, the remembrance of that becomes immortal. So, what does each one's heart say? Is it "My Baba" or is it Baba of the Brahma Kumaris? It is "My Baba". And, BapDada is also pleased to see each child: My children.

So today is the day of Deepmala (garland of lamps) and BapDada and all of you too are seeing the Deepraj (King of Deepaks) and the deepaks. Deepraj is pleased to see each and every deep (lamp) and what song does He sing? "Wah children, wah!" You are the "Wah" children, are you not? Those who are "Wah" children, clap your hands. So, today, who is in each one's heart now? "My Baba" - Everyones's face is smiling because it is "Wah Baba, wah!".

Today, the children are personally seeing the Father and the Father is also seeing the children, but even if you are far away, the Father is merged in your heart. Is the Father merged in your heart? Raise your hands! Is Baba in the hearts of all of you? There is nothing else. In the Father's heart, too, there is each child. The Father cannot stay without the children and the children cannot stay without the Father. This gift of the confluence age – the meeting of the Father and the children – takes place only once in the whole cycle. It takes place repeatedly at the confluence age, but it takes place only in the one age, the confluence age; and this life is so easy! You don't have to do any physical hatha yoga postures. Simply, "My Baba," that's all. It is difficult to forget that which is "mine". Once you make the Father yours, the effort of forgetting finishes. Even a small thing that is "mine" is remembered so much. The Father loves every child. It isn't that because Baba has so many children, you think: Does Baba remember me or not? No, the Father is the World Father; and, in that too, who is with Him in the main relationship? You children. Each one of you is so lovely. You say: "Lovely Baba", and Baba says: "My sweetest, loveliest children." Each child is loved by BapDada from His heart.

So, even today, see where all of you have come from in order to meet the Father, the One loved by the heart. You are celebrating Deepmala. BapDada is pleased to see the living deepaks: Wah children! wah! You are "Wah wah!" are you not? Are you "wah, wah!"? Those who are, raise your hands! Are all of you that? BapDada has you children in His heart. Who can remain merged in the Father's heart? All of you know that anyway. The children are in the Father's heart and the Father is in the children's hearts. This relationship of the confluence age will not be there in the whole cycle. It exists now and that too is the fortune of this birth. So, you are celebrating Diwali, are you not? Each deepak is especially loved by Deepraj. No matter what each of you children considers yourself to be, each child is loved from the heart by the Father. What is in each one's heart? The Father is in the children's hearts and the children are in the Father's heart.

2000 double-foreigner brothers and sisters have come from 105 countries: Bharat is there anyway, and BapDada comes in Bharat.

(We are receiving so much love from Baba, so what should we give in return?) Children know what they have to do. All of those who have come from abroad, stand up! Congratulations. (Sindhi brothers and sisters): Welcome. This is the name of the place of establishment (Sindh). BapDada is pleased, whether each child is Sindhi or Hindi, in the majority, each child remains happy. Upon seeing this, Baba is very pleased. Never lose your happiness. There may be situations, but why should those situations take away your happiness? Happiness is each one's own property and that should never be lost. Situations come and those are papers that come. The children who are good effort-makers always pass their paper. A paper is not a big thing for them. They are always ready. The sign of those who remain ready in this way is that the waves of happiness are always visible on their faces. No matter how many situations come, you stay in a double relationship – lokik and alokik – and those who remain constantly happy continue to move forward at every step. And, on seeing these children in a subtle form, there is definitely love in His heart for these children. They also feel that Baba loves them. There are many children who remain happy in their hearts and will always remain happy. Those who are not like that, they should also always remain happy.

10,000 brothers and sisters have come from Uttar Pradesh, West Nepal, and Banaras: It is good. You have done well and are doing well. Are you satisfied with this much service? Congratulations!

(Double foreign centre residents): It is good. There is good progress abroad too. BapDada is pleased.

All the Indian teachers: The residents of Bharat are no less. It is good that whatever task you carry out is good.

All the children, please accept BapDada's love and remembrance from the depth of His heart and soul, with lots of love. If this love and remembrance stays with you at all times, no obstacles will come. You will become free from obstacles. Simply, "My Baba" - Generally, no one forgets that which is "mine". By remembering "My Baba" and the "inheritance from Baba", you will remain constantly happy.

BapDada is meeting each one of you individually from the heart. It isn't that Baba has not met those who are sitting at the back. Baba is meeting you. Each child is close to BapDada.

Whether someone has come here or not, BapDada is giving love and remembrances to all the children everywhere.

In everyone's heart, there is just "Sweet Baba, lovely Baba". Some say this and others don't say it with their lips, but Baba is in each one's heart. BapDada also says: Wah children, wah!

Mohiniben gave Baba remembrances from Brother Brijmohan: (Today, he could not come because of his health.) Give him special remembrance.

Senior sisters from abroad: Everything is moving along free from obstacles, is it not? All of you are instruments for service with a lot of love from your hearts. BapDada is pleased. Until now, each one of you has been doing whatever you should be doing, according to your capacity. Congratulations! Success is your birthright. It is moving along well and will continue to do so, because Baba is seeing each one of you and you are making very good effort. All the jewels that have emerged from abroad are good. Though there are few, they are good.

(Dr. Nirmala told BapDada that Australia has a new home in Sydney.) Give love and remembrance to those from Sydney. All places are OK. Everyone's remembrance reaches BapDada. What else is there in each one's heart now? Just that you are fine, you are moving along fine and making everyone move along fine. There is progress.

Congratulations for Deepawali: From BapDada, to each child, whether here in front of Baba, whether at a centre, whether in this land or abroad, BapDada is giving each one of you congratulations for Diwali. So, in this way, continue to receive from BapDada the certificate of being a star of success. Now, at this time, you are embodiments of success, are you not? So, constantly be an embodiment of success. Constantly continue to give and take congratulations for happiness from one another. Are all of you happy? All of you have celebrated Deepmala, that is, you will constantly continue to sparkle like the deepaks. No situation will trouble the Deepmala of any of the deepaks. Remain constantly happy and share that happiness. Constantly remember this slogan of this Diwali.

*** O M S H A N T I ***

Stay in your divine lit form in such a way that the lights of those who come in front of you also become ignited. Do not let your ordinary form be visible to them.

Om shanti from Deepraj (The King of Deepaks) to all the living, lit deepaks everywhere. These living deepaks are so lovely. The memorial of all of you is being celebrated in the world, whereas you living deepaks are celebrating a meeting with Deepraj. Each deepak is sparkling in the remembrance of Deepraj. BapDada is also giving each deepak, lots and lots and lots of love and remembrance from His heart. Each deep (short for deepak) is very loving and one to be merged in the heart. The light everywhere is such that it attracts the heart. What is emerging from each one's heart? Wah! Wah! Wah! These living deepaks, whose memorial is being celebrated in the world, have come here to celebrate a meeting with Deepraj. Seeing all the deepaks who have come, Deepraj is also very pleased in His heart. Wah My deepaks!, Wah! The light of each deepak is sparkling, numberwise. Seeing those lights, BapDada is congratulating all the deepaks. Congratulations! Congratulations! Congratulations! The memorial of all of you is being celebrated in the world and you living deepaks are celebrating a meeting with Deepraj. This meeting is very lovely and also unique. Who is merged in the heart of each of the deepaks? Deepraj – "My Baba". Baba is seeing the remembrance of Deepraj merged on each one's face.

Today, you, too, see your memorial in the world, do you not? So many devotees everywhere are remembering you deepaks, and you deeps, in the living form, who are celebrating a meeting with Deepraj. You celebrate the day of this meeting in the form of Diwali. All of you are also happy in your hearts upon seeing your memorial, and are thinking "Wah Deepraj!, Wah!" A memorial has been created for every year. You can understand what the flame of this deep is and what the light is. Devotees ignite one or another light, but you true deepaks know that a meeting of Deepraj and the deepaks is taking place. Upon seeing each deepak, from the front to the back, and seeing them from a distance, BapDada is also happy: Wah deepaks of Deepraj!, Wah! You see your own memorial in the living form and you are celebrating a meeting with Deepraj. The individual light of each deepak is so lovely. Even in a physical way, if you put 10 to 12 deepaks together, their lights look so lovely. BapDada is pleased that He is able to see so many living deepaks personally. BapDada is telling each deepak: Wah Deepak!, Wah! Only BapDada can see the deepaks in the living form, and the children of the Father can see one another. In which form are all of you sitting? You are sitting in the form of living deepaks, are you not? If you can see the scene of each light, it is visible as very real and beautiful. The faces of all are shining like deepaks. You also know yourselves in that form and while seeing yourselves as detached observers, you are smiling so much. BapDada, too, on seeing each smiling deepak, is celebrating the Diwali of the living deepaks. Each of you deepaks is spreading your own divine light. If so many deepaks were to be ignited in a physical way, it would be such a beautiful scene, but it is BapDada seeing the rosary of the true living deepaks. BapDada is seeing each deepak as an embodiment of their practical dharna and is pleased: Wah, My lit deepaks!, Wah!

BapDada is so pleased to see you living deepaks. Wah deep!, Wah! All of you are seeing your forms as forms of light, are you not? BapDada is very much pleased to see all the lit deepaks, though all are numberwise, but upon seeing the gathering of the lit deepaks, BapDada is pleased. Wah, the lit deepaks, wah! The devotees remember the constantly lit lights with so much love and BapDada is pleased to see the deepaks in front of Him: Wah deeps!, Wah! Together, all of you light the deeps in the world and will continue to light them. So, what is BapDada seeing? He is very pleased to see the living deepaks: Wah children! Wah! Wah deepaks! Wah!

From now on, continue to ignite the light of others with your own light, with the lights of the deepaks. People in the world do not know the living deepaks and so they light physical deepaks, but whom are all of you seeing today? You are seeing the lit deepaks that are visible in the living faces. BapDada is also pleased on seeing each child as a lit deepak in the living form. Of course, there is a difference in the light, it is numberwise, but at least you have been lit from an extinguished form. BapDada is seeing the gathering of the lit deepaks. The world only lights up the deepmala (rosary of deepaks), but BapDada is seeing the gathering of lit deepaks. See how lovely it is. Each of you living deepaks can know your own light.

BapDada is seeing it in the form and the children can know it with the intellect. So, all of you are seeing Diwali in this gathering, the Diwali of the true deepaks, the Diwali of the ignited deepaks. If you can see it, raise your hands! You are also seeing yourselves, are you not?

BapDada is very pleased to see the living deepaks: Wah deepaks, wah! Each of you deepaks is showing the splendour of your own light. Each one's face, with its lit face, is giving its own introduction. On this day, today, Deepraj is very, very pleased on seeing His true, deep (deepak) children. Wah deepak children! Wah! All of you through your lit form at this moment are granting visions to many of your devotees. How many devotees will you have from the copper age? Whether they know your form or not, the drama is showing them that their deepak kings have come. You are sitting here in an ordinary form, but your devotees are seeing you in the form of the deeps (deepaks), and BapDada is seeing you in the form of "Wah children! Wah!" The meeting between Deepraj and the deepaks is so beautiful. The Father's heart says: "Wah children, wah!" and the children's hearts says: "wah Baba, wah"! So, are all of you happy and prosperous? Are you? Raise your hands! Wah! Wah children! Wah! When any situation arises and comes in front of you lit deepaks, you deeps are lit. You are such deepraj that as soon as souls come in front of you, they come to know their own form. Such a time will also come that as soon as they come in front of you, they will be able to see your divine form, and then the corporeal, the ordinary form, will disappear. Just as when you come in front of BapDada and Baba sees you in the form according to the time, similarly, all of you will also be seen in the same way. You will not be seen as ordinary. In the ordinary form, you will be seen as the deities or the goddesses. Even now, this feeling comes in a practical way from some children, but everyone will definitely reach that stage.

Today, BapDada is seeing all of you in the form of the living deepaks and "Wah! Wah" is emerging for each one. Are all of you happy? Are you happy? Raise your hands! Wah! Happiness is your personal property. Happiness is not anything else. It is your own property and so emerge it within yourself, that's all. What else do you have to do? Achcha.

It is the turn of Karnataka zone and Indore zone to serve: (10,000 have come from Karnataka): Very good. Continue to move forward and inspire others to move forward. You have taken a good chance to serve the yagya and you have given everyone your introduction by doing service. BapDada is giving special love and remembrance to the residents of Karnataka.

Indore Zone: (3000 have come.) Very good. It is good that each one receives a chance and everyone puts their chance into a practical form with great happiness. So, just see how many have come! You have received the very good fortune of doing service. Brahmins are serving Brahmins. This fortune is so lovely and so many become happy. All of you are happy that you have received this chance, are you not? It is good.

Double-foreign brothers and sisters: Good numbers have come. It never happens that the double-foreign children do not take a chance in every turn. Whether it is a few or many, the presence is from all directions. It is good. Not just double, but a thousand times double congratulations to the double foreigners. And for those who have become instruments for service from the zones here, how many times for them? A thousand fold times congratulations, congratulations! Congratulations to them, for their service is emerging from each one's heart. BapDada is seeing their hearts. The double-foreign children are standing. It looks good. The double foreigners definitely take part in anything that happens. BapDada likes this. It is a wonder that you manage to reach here from anywhere! So, double congratulations to the double foreigners and a thousand-fold congratulations, congratulations to those who are servers here.

Many have come for the first time: It is good. BapDada is seeing. It is good. BapDada also see this sadhu (saint). (BapDada is seeing the great soul who has come from Karnataka.) It is good to awaken your equals. Bring such a group here. Then, everyone will think that your service should not be anything less. Nevertheless, you are doing good work, are you not? By telling something or the other to souls, you are definitely making them a little better. You also make them right in many ways. So, BapDada is also giving remembrances to you. Achcha.

You celebrated today. However, you are always this in practical life. The Father is constantly in each one's heart and you are also constantly in the Father's heart. Achcha.

Speaking to Dadi Janki: You know how to look after your body, do you not? Is it all right? This is your strength. BapDada gives you strength at the right time. It is good. All the children are doing their own work very well and so congratulations are given to everyone. Congratulations, congratulations to all of you too.

Mohiniben: You are OK. A lot of change has come in you. (You just continue to give blessings.) It will happen. You will do service. Do it indoors. Many do come here. At other places, you have to go there, whereas here, everyone comes by themselves. (She wishes to go out on service.) Take her out and she will stay enthusiastic.

Rameshbhai: It is good that all of you get together and make plans for service. BapDada likes that. You are doing this and you have to do it more. You have meetings among yourselves for service. Continue to increase this a little more. It is good. Everything is now moving along fine.

Brijmohanbhai: You will always be fine. Achcha.

Note: According to the Hindu Calendar Dev Diwali – A Festival of lights of the gods (6th November 2014) - is celebrated a fortnight after the main Diwali. Dev Diwali falls on the night of a full moon and thousands of deepaks are lit and put on the rivers in Benares and the Devs (deities) are also worshipped.

While making Dilaram, the Comforter of Hearts, sit in your heart and celebrating a meeting, remain constantly happy. Amrit vela is the beginning of the day and therefore, definitely drink the nectar of amrit vela.

Today, seeing the gathering of the children, BapDada is pleased and His mind is saying, “Wah children! Wah!” This meeting of the Father and the children is so lovely. Each child is celebrating a meeting with love and enthusiasm. This love enables you to forget all sorrow, in the Father’s love and relationship. Wah, the meeting of the Father with the children! Wah! The Father is pleased to see the children and the children are happy to see the Father. Each child is smiling and the Father too is pleased to see the children, whether they are sitting near or far away. This meeting between the Father and the children is an alokik meeting. The Father is pleased to see each and every child, and the children are also pleased to see the Father in the corporeal form. This alokik meeting is so unique and lovely. In the majority, everyone’s faces are smiling and, BapDada, seeing each child everywhere, is singing the song in His mind, “Wah, sweet children! Wah!” The song of the children’s hearts is also heard. This meeting of the Father and the children is so unique and lovely. The happiness of this meeting in each one’s heart is visible on each one’s face. Seeing each and every child and while saying, “Wah child! Wah!” to every child, BapDada is celebrating a meeting with each one. Even if you are sitting in the very last (row), even while sitting far away from the Father, you are close.

Today, the first day of the season (winter) is so beautiful. In the children’s hearts is- “Wah Baba! Wah!”, and in the Father’s heart too is - each and every child, whether you are sitting in the front or at the back; those sitting at the back are also in front of the Father. Remembering today as the day of celebrating a meeting, you are now personally celebrating a meeting in front of Baba. What song is the Father singing on seeing the fortune of each child? All the children whether those in the front or those who are at the very last are in front of the Father in His heart. Seeing the meeting of the children, the Father is also singing songs of the children. How many children in the whole world have a relationship of the heart with the Father? The relationship of the heart is visible through the face, and the Father is singing this song: Wah long-lost and now-found children, especially beloved children, wah! You continue to meet for so long with your hearts. The Father cannot enjoy anything from His heart without the children, and the children too constantly remember the Father in their hearts. Who do all of you remember in your hearts? You would say, “It is “Baba”, would you not?” And, who is in Baba’s heart? Can Baba forget any single child? Even if you are numberwise, you are still His children, are you not?

So, today, seeing the ones who remember Him with their hearts personally in front of Him, BapDada has so much happiness. Seeing each child, the heart says, “Wah children! Wah”. Children would also ask: “Who is in our hearts?”, and the Father also asks: Who is in My heart? All of you know; there is no need even to say it. The Father cannot forget the children and the children cannot forget the Father. You always have the Father’s remembrance in your heart; it is present. The meeting continues to take place in a subtle way, but, seeing each and every child in the corporeal form, whether you are far away or near, BapDada remembers each one of you child in His heart, numberwise. So, today, seeing each and every child in the corporeal form, seeing you close and in front of Him, Baba is singing the song: Wah children! Wah! Who resides in each one’s heart? You would say, “My Baba”, and what would the Father say? No matter how many children there are and wherever they may be, each one is in the heart and this is why you call the Father, “Dilaram”. Seeing each and every child in the corporeal form, the Father is so pleased, and the children and the Father know this. Are all of you pleased in your hearts? Raise your hands! Happy in your heart? Why? The Father knows that even if a situation arises, you still remember the Father and by remembering, it becomes emerged. No matter how many children there are, the children cannot forget the Father and the Father cannot forget His children. This is a small hall and you are sitting in it in the corporeal form according to its size, but if the children emerged in their angelic form, so many children would become emerged, and each one definitely remembers the Father at one time or another. You emerge in front of BapDada in your angelic form. The children experience this and the Father also experiences it because the children are alone without celebrating a meeting with the Father, and the Father too is alone without celebrating a meeting with the children. In the subtle form, He can make everyone emerge, but there is a difference between a meeting in the corporeal form and in the angelic form. You also experience this, do you not? So, today is the first day of the season. By chance, one or another programme continues to take place, and, because of this, however many children have come today, Baba is celebrating a meeting with all of them in the corporeal form. So, do all of you children remain constantly happy, or only sometimes? For those who remain constantly happy, no matter what happens and it is the iron age, this relationship between the Father and the children is such that the children say, “Baba” and Baba says, “Children” and the meeting continues to take place. It does take place, does it not? Those who feel that it happens like that, raise your hands! It is visible here too. Look, along with the Father’s part, all of these facilities have also emerged, so that even those who are sitting at a distance at the back are visible as being close.

When the Father comes at the time of the confluence age, then science too is a good helper. Even while sitting there, if you want to hear the murli, you can hear it, can you not? Just the facilities are needed. Just as you cannot stay without remembering the Father, similarly, the Father cannot stay without remembering you children. The Father too makes you emerge and meets you; He cannot stay without doing so. So, today is the day of a meeting in the corporeal form. The Father is seeing you children and you children are seeing the Father. Do all of you remain constantly happy? Some remain happy sometimes and others remain happy all the time. Those who remain constantly happy continue to be in front of the Father’s eyes, because even the Father cannot stay without the children. Whenever any situation arises with the children, they never forget that; it reaches the Father. This relationship is such that they never forget. The Father says, “My beloved children”, and the children say, “My Baba”. Can you forget for even one day? Can you forget this? You cannot forget because the relationship of the heart between the Father and the children is such that you stay in each other’s hearts. The Father cannot stay without the children nor can you children stay without the Father. Just as today, the meeting is taking place in the corporeal form, similarly, the Father continues to make you children emerge and meet. The children also continue to meet.

So, what progress will all of you make from today, because you have to move forward at every moment? So, in what way will you move forward? To move forward means to merge BapDada in your heart. Anything of the heart can never be forgotten and there can be constant remembrance in the heart. It does stay, does it not? It can stay in the heart. The matter of meeting personally is a different matter, but you can meet the Father in your heart whenever you want, and the Father, too, continues to celebrate a meeting. The Father too is restless without the children. The part of the Father and the children constantly celebrating a meeting is predestined at the confluence age. To the extent that you remember Him, you can make Him emerge accordingly. So, BapDada is also pleased when you make a programme for a personal meeting. Children are happy anyway, but BapDada is pleased too. So, all of you should remain constantly happy. Did you all stay constantly happy or was there any other stage in between other than that of happiness? Those who remain constantly happy remain safe from any form of Maya because Maya comes in various forms. She doesn’t just come in the form of happiness. Even in the form of thoughts, Maya makes you belong to her. So, now, after this meeting, continue to sit the Father in your mind. The Comforter of Hearts only likes the heart. When you remember Him with your heart, you automatically remember Him in all aspects. At least, all of you celebrate a meeting at amrit vela, do you not? Those who definitely meet at amrit vela every day, raise your hands! It is the majority. Everywhere you definitely adopt the method of amrit vela and are trying very well. You give importance to amrit vela, but, in the future too, to those who only have amrit vela sometimes, you have to move forward in that because amrit vela is the beginning of the day - so you definitely have to stay in remembrance at that time. It has an impact upon the whole day. Are all of you happy or does Maya also take her chance in between? Do not lose your happiness. Even if Maya comes, instantly tell the Father and change yourself. If you are unable to reach the Father, then definitely tell your senior instruments. Do not let it build up even for one day, because otherwise, it will become a habit. It is necessary to drink the nectar of amrit vela, and definitely to continue to use this time in a worthwhile way. Achcha.

Are all of you happy and will you remain happy? Are you sure? Even if trivial situations come, your happiness should not disappear. Whenever anyone suddenly sees you, they should see that you have a happy face.

It is the turn of Punjab and Rajasthan zones for service: (10,000 have come from Punjab and 5,000 have come from Rajasthan.) Raise your hands! Very good. (Both groups were made to stand up separately.) Both zones together have done good service.

It is good. There are many servers. You have now got up and are standing; there must be at least half (of those in the hall). It is good. Congratulations, congratulations to both zones. It is good. Why? You receive a chance to serve the yagya. Otherwise, you would not make special time to come. You may already have service, but this is a chance to serve the yagya. You can take many chances in this and you should take a chance in all subjects. You have to be all rounders. It is good.

300 double foreigners have come: There are many foreigners here. Is it the turn of the foreigners? (Those from abroad come in every turn.) It is good. It is a good system that has been created. Everyone receives a chance. Achcha.

BapDada is seeing that every child is co-operating very well in the time that has been given for service. BapDada is giving one thousand-fold love and remembrance to all the children for co-operating at a time of need.

(BapDada met the Dadis.)

Mohiniben sent love and remembrances from New York: Send special love and remembrance to Mohini.

Mohiniben: Is your health ok? Have you been liberated? Achcha.

*** O M S H A N T I *****

While paying attention to making intense effort in the New Year, constantly keep moving forward. Check and transform yourself. The final paper will take place suddenly. Therefore, claim pass marks in every subject. Always remain together and come into the kingdom together.

Congratulations, congratulations, congratulations filled with newness for the New Year! Seeing His intense effort-making children, BapDada is giving all the children congratulations for newness in the New Year. At the beginning of this New Year, every child would definitely have kept the aim of newness in their thoughts, words, relationships and connections in a practical way and also kept newness for the year in their intellects. In your efforts, you would have brought your steps and your specialities into your intellects. All of you are moving along. The meaning of “effort” is that you take steps forward. BapDada saw that everyone would have taken the steps of having elevated thoughts to move ahead the most in their efforts. Those who had the thought for themselves to move ahead, raise your hands! Those sitting at the back, if you had the thought raise your hands! The confluence age is the age for taking steps forward. So, you must definitely have created some means or a method for yourself to move ahead. You must definitely have kept an easy and elevated means emerged for yourself in the form of an aim. Those of you who have kept the aim for the future, to step forward in your thoughts, words, deeds, relationships and connections, raise your hands! It is good. You have raised your hands very well. Even those at the back are raising their hands. Raise your hands a little higher, high like this. You are raising your hands very well. Seeing the hands of effort, BapDada is pleased and the aim and its qualifications will remain together. You must definitely have created such a plan for yourselves. You have made it.

BapDada saw that some children have made a plan for themselves and BapDada is pleased that the plans and the practical form will definitely fulfil the aim that you have kept. You will do it, will you not? Raise your hands for this! Achcha, you will do it. BapDada Himself sees the chart of each child according to the time and, together with that, also gives the blessing for you to move ahead as much as possible. BapDada saw that many have a very good aim but, whilst you are moving along, the circumstances make you a little slack in your aim. You have kept a good aim and BapDada is pleased on seeing the aim but, together with that, there is a little difference visible in your moving ahead. Nevertheless, BapDada saw that the aim of the majority is good. Now, there is a need to pay attention that you move ahead in both your aim and its qualifications. Think and do - it is essential that both take place together. No matter what happens, and things do happen for these are the trivial papers, you have to move forward in these papers. A little more attention is needed in this respect, because BapDada has a record of every child. Just as you keep your own record, in the same way, BapDada also looks every now and again at the record of every child. Your aim is very good. When you make plans, you make them with a lot of zeal and enthusiasm, but you will have to pay attention later, because all of you know that everyone pays a little attention to fulfil the aim, but it is numberwise. So, what number do you consider yourself to be? The Father saw that you have very good understanding, and, together with the understanding, you also check yourself very well. However, while moving along, some situations come in front of you that change your intense effort into ordinary effort. On seeing each one, BapDada says: Let there be imperishable attention. Situations do come, but do not let your attention be reduced in those situations. BapDada has seen that some children keep a good aim and they do move along, but- there is a ‘but’. Time is now waiting for all of you. The aim is good, the checking is good, but every now and again some situations attract you towards itself. The final result will take place suddenly; there won’t be a date fixed for this.

BapDada wishes to see each of the children as number one with their methods of effort. BapDada has seen that every child wants this, but in some cases, they are coloured by the company of carelessness. “It will happen.” We have experienced both situations. They think: We have thought about it and it is not a big deal, so we will pay attention at that time. You do note down that you have to pay attention. However, whether it is for a long period of time, or every now and then during the long period of time, you become casual in paying attention – the result is more of this kind. The nature of being ordinary that you should not have, sometimes makes you act one way and sometimes another. So, BapDada wants you always to keep an eye on yourself. Let there not be any ordinariness. Now, all of you are in the list of those who are old; there are fewer new ones. The majority of you are in the list of the old ones, and the final paper is to take place suddenly. The date will not be fixed. So, it is necessary to make your specialities permanent because the paper does not come all the time. The paper will be given every now and then according to the drama, and you therefore have to pay constant attention. Many of you do pay attention, and BapDada places such ones in the list of intense effort-makers. You do pay attention, but sometimes it is intense and at other times, when the papers come, there is a little difference created in your intense efforts.

So, BapDada is pleased to see all the children, and it is seen that, day by day, the children definitely pay attention to themselves. It isn't that they stop paying attention to themselves. They do, but it is numberwise and, from time to time, BapDada pays special attention to meeting everyone all together. However, there is a difference in seeing each one's speed of effort. Sometimes, a little carelessness is visible in this. "It will happen, it will happen".... A little of this addition takes place. There are a handful of children out of multimillions. However, BapDada wants the handful to definitely pay attention. BapDada knows that the final paper is going to take place suddenly. Circumstances will be like that, and this is why you have to check your checking, as to whether it is according to how BapDada wants it to be and speaks about it. "Is my checking according to that?" You definitely continue to hear about what BapDada wants. At the very least, every night before going to sleep, it is necessary to check yourself because you get tired with all the work that you do. You do give time and you have it in your heart, but tiredness pulls you. So, seeing the time, BapDada is once again drawing your attention: never become careless in paying attention.

BapDada sees that you make effort in many ways. You also pay attention; you are not completely careless, but the time will come suddenly. It can come at any time and this is why BapDada is thinking generally and telling each child: Attention please! In every subject, you should at least have pass marks. To have a number slightly lower is a different matter, but check that there is attention and transformation. You do not become careless, do you? "It will happen, it will happen..." "It is not a big deal." This is known as being careless in paying attention. BapDada is pleased with the efforts of the majority of children, but, every now and again, Maya also takes her chance. BapDada is congratulating you and, at the same time, also drawing your attention. Attention means no tension. In any way, in any subject, let there be full attention. Do not think that this little bit will be OK. Sometimes, even one number less causes a great loss and this is why BapDada does not want to see even one single child making ordinary effort. It is good that this gathering takes place every now and again. By seeing the gathering and by meeting BapDada, you have enthusiasm, but let this enthusiasm continue. Make sure some trivial matters do not finish your efforts or make your efforts slack. BapDada is pleased that every now and again you have one or another programme for the maximum number of people to meet. By your meeting personally, zeal and enthusiasm increases. Even BapDada is seeing this. So, each one of you consider yourself to be responsible and check and caution yourself.

Are all of you fine? Raise your hands! BapDada is pleased that you are raising your hands, but you children are also clever, aren't you? You would say: We were fine at that time, and this is why we raised our hands. That is right, but all of you are those who will make others move forward too, and it is fine that you are moving along well. The Father accepts this, but you should have this certificate all the time. That is, when you pay that much constant attention to yourself, what will happen then? BapDada will be pleased and those who are making effort will be fine and their companions too will be fine. So, you are good effort-makers. So, BapDada is also pleased when you raise your hands. BapDada feels that some would say that they just raised their hands. However, those who raised their hands will receive some power for the future, will they not? They will think about it for themselves, will they not? For instance, if someone has to take a paper tomorrow, he would think about what he raised his hand for, and then he will move forward, having made a correction. BapDada wants to see that, just as every child is happily sitting here now with everyone, so it should be the same in the final period. Simply pass, pass, pass for every situation. It should not be that you will think about it or see about it, but that you have already passed. So, what do you think? Will you definitely pass or will it be only a little? Those of you who feel that you will definitely demonstrate this by passing, raise your hands! Look, yes, BapDada is pleased when you raise your hands. It feels good and there is enthusiasm but many little things cause obstructions. Now, try and finish those. You even think that it will not happen like that in the future but it still happens. From the results so far, those who think that transformation has to take place from now, that you have to transform yourselves from now, raise your hands! You raise your hands so well that BapDada becomes pleased. It is good. BapDada is with you and so your hand also co-operates with you. However, you have to keep BapDada with you at all times. This was just company for two hours. Constantly keep the experience of His company with you, that is all. Do not make yourself alone. Constantly keep BapDada with you.

So, from now, until you meet BapDada again, your hand will remain like that. Raise both hands for this. So, now, at night, always keep BapDada in front of you. Emerge Him and please Him by keeping your result in front of BapDada. “There wasn’t any mistake in my mind, in my words or in my deeds”. Is this possible? Raise your hands for this! Achcha. You have raised your hands. BapDada was pleased with this, but, whenever something happens, tell your companions who are effort-makers about this and make a promise to yourself for the future. You may not promise anyone else but you can promise yourself. Keep the Father in front of you and make a promise, because you take account of the time in your result, that is, for how long you remained like that. OK, you are fine at that time, and that is good too, but in the final result the time (duration) will also be checked and this is why, every night, emerge yourself in this gathering and of raising your hand. “What was it that I raised my hand for in front of the Father? Was it that I would transform myself or that I would think about it?” Do you have this much courage?

“After today, the thought that I have had of becoming perfect will be imperishable”. Is this possible? Let the past be the past! From your heart see yourself in the midst of the gathering, but do not think that everyone is seeing you. “I am promising in front of the Father and so when the Father is seeing, it means that everyone saw”. Is this possible? Those who have courage and who, for any reason will not leave the seat of perfection in the future, no matter what the reason - and there will definitely be reasons - raise your hands! Achcha. Congratulations! Now those who haven’t raised their hands will feel ashamed. OK so you didn’t raise your hands. However, if you have zeal and enthusiasm, and you will raise your hands to definitely demonstrate something, raise your hands! You are raising your hands because.... The Father knows what the result will be. However, by your raising your hand, this raising of your hand will also help you. To raise your hand in the midst of such a big gathering is not a small thing. Therefore, now think about what transformation means. Achcha, at least you had a little courage now. After having made such a promise, even if you don’t do it, at least you will come in the line. So, whenever something happens, then remember that you raised your hand in the midst of the gathering. You will benefit yourself and the Father will be pleased. However, you will have to do this, will you not? So, whenever any situation comes, remember your hand. You will receive help - not by remembering it just like that, but it is because you promised yourself from your heart in the midst of so many brothers and sisters, so you will receive that help. BapDada wants all the children who are now present here now at least you have courage. You do want to become this; why else would you raise your hand? Don’t raise it, who is seeing you? When you think about it and have courage, continue to give water to that courage. You promised and you became free. Always remember this hand. How big is the gathering? The Father is there anyway. You had the thought in front of so many Brahmins, not just the Father alone, so do not make light of this. It is because you want it that you raised your hands. So, whatever is your desire, and it is not just raising your hand because you are asked to, but it is your mind’s desire and this is why you raised your hand. So, continue to move forward in this. Do not look at the situation, but think about the aspect of moving forward. It will happen. Who else will become this? You are the ones who are going to become this, are you not? Therefore, have faith in yourself. You definitely have to demonstrate what you have said. Is this all right? In any case, it is said: remember what you said. Whenever something happens, remember the situation of this moment, because even now, you are saying something because you want it and this is why you are saying that you will do it. Now, continue to make this firm within yourself. At amrit vela, bring in front of you this scene of the thought that you had and how BapDada and so many brothers and sisters were happy to see you. So, you gave happiness to so many. When you raised your hand to say, “yes”, so many became happy. So, do not forget the happiness of so many brothers and sisters. You can remember this much, can you not? You can remember that you had experienced this in such and such an atmosphere, can you not? Transformation has to take place. Without your transformation you cannot stay together there too, you will be far away. Would you like that? In the golden age, you will not know about this, but when you come to know what number you claimed in the final result, what will happen? You will also not like it at that time. Therefore, have a determined thought. You know that circumstances will come. You know about that, you have experienced that. You will have to do it. Have the faith that you definitely do have to become perfect. What is your aim? All of you who are sitting here, so many are coming here just like that. So, what is your aim? It is to become perfect, is it not? So, each one see yourself. At night, note down whether your behaviour is according to what your aim is and for what it is that you have raised your hands. Throughout the day, your behaviour should be according to your aim. So, check yourself. No matter whether others do this or not, check yourself!

Are all of you happy? How happy are you? It is good. Never lose your happiness. Even though this is the end of the iron age, you are still happy, are you not? So, you are happy and you will always remain happy. Is that right? Raise both hands for this! Achcha. Now, whenever something happens, remember what was it that you raised your hands for in this gathering of so many Brahmins. You raised your hands for this, did you not? Now, remain firm in this because you are going to live together in the golden age too, are you not? Or, are you going to be separated? You will stay together. When you rule, you will rule together, will you not? You will not be separated. So, always remember that you will be together for half the cycle. No matter what happens afterwards, you will remain together for half the cycle. What do those who have faith in the intellect think? You will remain together from the beginning until the end in different forms. BapDada does not want a single child to be separated. Each of you children, remember every day at amrit vela: You are together, you will stay together and rule in the kingdom together. It is good. BapDada likes the gathering. In the same way, you will be equal in the golden age too, and so you will be together there too. You will come and go and meet one another. All of you are companions, are you not? You are companions, so raise your hands. It is good. It is so good when the companions stay together. Though you may be living separately, there will be the company of the heart. Your dress will change, but your mind will not change. Achcha. We will meet again.

It is the turn of Gujarat to serve: 15,000 brothers and sisters have come from Gujarat. It is good. Even now, there are more from Gujarat. It is their turn. Gujarat has one speciality. One speciality is that you are together and also together in your hearts. Whenever an order is given, Gujarat comes. The large number is also a fruit of service. The number in Gujarat is good. It is good. Gujarat is close and becomes a companion in every situation.

500 brothers and sisters from abroad have come: It is good. The double foreigners who have come from abroad are actually from this land, but have come from abroad. Stand up. Achcha.

One minute silence. It should feel as though there is no one in the hall.

To all the children everywhere, each one please accept special love and remembrance. Seeing each child, BapDada is very pleased. No matter where you are from, whether from this land or abroad, you now belong to the Father. All the children have this happiness.

(Mohiniben of Madhuban told Baba that she has lot of knee pain.) It will become alright. Never mind. You will start walking, will go ahead of all. You have enthusiasm and that will make you walk.

Dadi Jankiji: (Baba, Dadi is facing a very big paper of her body. Please do some magic.) Oh, but the Father is not separate at all. He is doing magic. The whole yagya is with you. No matter what happens, you are an idol of the yagya. Seeing you, everyone has enthusiasm. You are an instrument.
